GOVERNOR-GENERAL INDISPOSED ON TOUR

Lord Byng, at Port Arthur To-day, Suffers With Infection of Foot

Visit to Winnipeg Postponed Indefinitely; Lady Byng Reviews Troops

Port Arthur, Ont., April 19—Suffering from a slight infection of one of his feet, Baron Byng, Governor-General of Canada, was unable to leave his train on arrival here to-day.

The Governor-General's condition is not serious, but because of the infection he is unable to use his foot. Dr. J. C. Gillie of Fort William is in attendance, having met the train at Nipigon.

Colonel Snow, private secretary to Lord Byng, stated the infection had developed after the Governor-General's train had left Ottawa.

Baron Byng will continue his Western tour, but the visit to Winnipeg has been postponed indefinitely.

Three thousand citizens were at the station to greet the Governor-General's party on arrivel here this morning.

Expressing the regrets of the Governor-General, Lady Byng reviewed a guard of honor, composed of war veterans, at the station, and attended a civic welcoming ceremony at the Armories.

PROGRAMME CHANGED

The Governor-General's train is due to leave Fort William this evening for the West at 6 o'clock. It was because the time was too short to cancel the programme at Port Arthur and Fort William that it was carried out as far as possible with Lady Byng acting on behalf of her husband, but for the next few days changes will be made. These are being outlined and will be communicated to-night to the various communities interested.

It is expected the Governor-General's foot will be entirely healed be-

FAMOUS AIR HERO HERE FOR VISIT TO HIS NATIVE ISLAND

Col. R. Collishaw is Loaded With Decorations; Brings Two Daughters

Col. C. Raymond Collishaw, the Nanaimo boy who rose to world aviation fame during the war, and with Barker and Bishop became one of the three outstanding air heroes of the British front, is in Victoria today on a holiday. He is accompanied on his visit to B.C. by his wife, who was Miss Trapp, of New Westminster, and their two daughters.

Col. Collishaw's war exploits are recalled by the fact that he had sixty enemy planes to his credit and by the number of decorations he carries, which include D.S.O. with bar, D.S.C., D.F.C., Croix de Coronne (Belgium), Mons Medal and Croix de Guerre with two palms, A.F.C., Legion d'Honneur.

Early in his life Ray Collishaw went from his home in Nanaimo seeking some adventure at sea and became attached to the Dominion Fisheries Protection service. When the war began he was taken into the Canadian Naval Department and then was transferred into the Royal Naval Air Service. He began to distinguish himself for his daring and judgment soon after he got into action in France, and it was only a short time before he was commanding the finest of the aerial squadrons in France and it was composed almost entirely of Canadians.

While he was once stationed in the Vosges, where he was conducting bombing operation over German territory, he detected the preparations being made by the Germans for their big offensive and his reports to the French enabled them to take the necessary measures to save themselves. In the last great phase of the war, from March 1918, Col. Collishaw's squadron was used in co-operation with the land forces.

After the war he went to Russia, where he served with Dennikin against the Bolsheviks. Later he went to Kurdistan, Persia, India, Mesopotamia and then Egypt. Recently he has been in England, where for the last two years he has been taking a course in the staff college, and has had charge of an air station.

POLICE ARE HUNTING PORTLAND ROBBERS

Five Armed Thugs Took $12,000 From Portland Electric Power Company's Truck

Portland, Oregon, April 19—Five desperadoes, armed with rifles and automatic pistols, held up the Portland Electric Power Company's money transfer truck at Nineteenth and Overton Streets, here early yesterday and escaped with over 600 pounds of cash and currency of a total value of about $12,600.

Scores of citizens witnessed the hold-up and the disarming of the money guard, Patrick Maher, and the driver of the truck, James Boyd, but all were cowed by the heavily armed bandits and none offered to interfere. One citizen, attempting to follow the fleeing outlaws, was made the target for a volley of shots that forced him to give up the chase.

The police obtained evidence that pointed to two notorious ex-convicts as members of the robber gang and arrests are expected.

The gang, the officers said, came from Seattle to commit the crime. The robbery, according to police records, was the most daring and in the matter of dollars and cents the largest committed in the city for years. It was the first big crime of this type in Portland in over four years.

WORKED CALMLY

The desperadoes, stopping the money truck in the widst of a thickly populated residential section, made no attempt to conceal their intentions. Instead, they virtually took control of the district, calmly went about their business of disarming the guard, unlocking the grilled gates of the money truck and transferring the heavy sacks of specie from the truck to their waiting automobile.

CAR SKIDS INTO HEADLONG CRASH

Somersaults to Beach When Driver Loses Control on Gorge Road

While driving along the Gorge Road yesterday afternoon A. Hunter, 107 Wellington Avenue, with a party of three others in his automobile, lost control of his car and drove headlong over the edge of the road to the beach. No one was seriously hurt. The car fell about ten feet and was going at a good rate of speed when it cut through the bushes at the side of the road, tipped over the bank and fell with a roaring engine to silence below.

To those upon the road the horror of that spectacle will long be remembered. Cars immediately rushed to the scene and willing hands bent to the task of helping the unfortunates underneath the overturned machine. But the proffered aid was scarcely needed. The occupants of

CANADA GOING AHEAD RAPIDLY MACLEAN FINDS

Conditions All Over Improving Fast, Says Finance Minister on Return Home

New Budget Best in Many Years; Taxpayers Will Benefit in Big Way From it

That Canada as a whole is entering a period of large business expansion and prosperity is the opinion formed by Hon. J. D. MacLean, Minister of Finance, through a tour of the Dominion during the last month. The Minister returned here to-day highly optimistic over the country's prospects.

"Western Canada is getting into splendid shape in a business way," Dr. MacLean declared. "Conditions in the East, also are very satisfactory. This fact cannot fail to strike anyone traveling through the Dominion at this time and it is fully borne out by the remarkable figures on trade and commerce contained in Hon. J. A Robb's Budget speech."

TAXPAYERS BENEFIT

The Federal Government's new financial policies outlined in the Budget speech will be of enormous value to the Canadian taxpayer, Dr. MacLean said, commenting on conferences which he held with Cabinet Ministers in Ottawa.

"The changes in the income tax," he said, "will free a very large class of people from income taxation altogether. The reduction in the automobile tariff will reduce the cost of cars to the ordinary buyer and to the operator of trucks and this will prove a very substantial saving indeed. On the whole, the new budget is the most encouraging and satisfactory that Canada has seen for many, many years."

ATTENDED SCHOOL PARLEY

Dr. MacLean's purpose in going to the East was to attend a national education conference in Montreal. Many prominent Canadians including President E. M. Beatty of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and Sir Arthur Currie, President of McGill University, were present. Methods of developing a stronger Canadian spirit in the schools of the Dominion were discussed at the conference; one of the most practical suggestions, in Dr. McLean's opinion, being the publication of a national school magazine for school children. This idea will be investigated by a committee which will look into means of financing the proposed publication.

WINS CITY LOT

H. Wormwood, 708 Blanshard Street, who attended the Home Products Fair on Wednesday evening last and held ticket No. 1857, was made happy to-day by the announcement that he had been successful in the game of "mixed skill and chance" which decided the ownership of the lot on Bank Street. The winner enters into possession of property valued at $830, according to city books, and on which the annual charges by way of taxation are $35.37. The City Lands Office did business amounting to close on $5,000 during the week as the result of its stall at the Home Products Fair.

DECORATION STARTED FOR CONVENTION

Rotary Convention Occasions Elaborate Displays of Bunting and Emblems

Miles of beflagged streets will greet Rotarians when they arrive in Victoria this week for the annual convention of the Northwestern District of International Rotary, to open Thursday at the Royal Victoria Theatre. The blue and gold colors of the Rotarians will form a major feature of the decorations, and with national flags and bunting, will support hundreds of gold and blue Rotary wheels.

Decoration of business premises commenced this morning, and many stores already give an indication of the splendid decorative scheme in hand. Practically every store and office in the down-town district will be arrayed in welcoming colors by the time Lieut.-Governor Bruce declares the convention open on Thursday morning.

This feature of the display will be of unusual merit, according to the assurances given the Victoria Rotary Club by all businessmen interviewed.

BIG SCHEME PLANNED

The Victoria Rotarians, as hosts to the convention, are spending thousands of dollars on an elaborate plan of street decoration, which will commence at the Belleville Street wharves and continue through the city to the Armories. Placement of these decorations will commence early to-morrow morning, the Fisk Flag and Decorating Company having the contract for this work, as well as many minor contracts for decoration of stores and buildings.

The plan of street decoration is as follows: From the great "Welcome" sign at the Inner Harbor to Government Street; thence to Yates Street; Broughton Street from Government Street to the Royal Victoria Theatre; Douglas Street from Broughton Street to the Armories; Yates Street from Government Street to Blanshard Street.

VANCOUVER JAPANESE WOMAN MURDERED

Wife of Sawmill Employee and Their Child Killed; Police Seek Widower's Brother

Vancouver, April 19—Lying on the floor of the home of Fataro Furkukuwa, a Japanese sawmill employee, the bodies of Kimi, his wife, twenty-four years old, and their small child, Munec, were found at noon today with the throats cut. Police are seeking Soitsu Furkukuwa, thirty-one, brother of Fataro, in connection with the deaths.

The police learned this afternoon that the two brothers, living at the same house, had worked at the same mill. Soitsu did not go to work this morning, saying he had a headache.

WIDOWER CALLED HOME

Two other roomers were leaving the house at 7.30 at the time Soitsu was returning. They came home again shortly before 12 o'clock and found the bodies of the woman and baby lying on the floor with the throats cut.

No trace of Soitsu could be found. The roomers immediately called the widower home and the police were notified.

A note written in Japanese, apparently by Soitsu, was hardly decipherable owing to its illiteracy. It was believed to contain a reference to suicide.

Further endeavors are being made to decipher and interpret the note.

SEARCH IS MADE

Search was immediately commenced for the missing man.

NO U.S. APPEAL IN BIG RADIO CASE

Only Course For Washington Is to Cancel Zenith Concern's License

Chicago, April 19.—The Government of the United States can not appeal the radio cases in which the Zenith Radio Corporation and its president successfully resisted prosecution last Saturday on charges of violating the 1912 radio law and establishing its rights to broadcast on any wave length it declares of Secretary of Commerce Hoover.

Federal Judge [illegible] has decided in favor of the Zenith Company, suggested the case be made a test, but Assistant District Attorney John Elliott Byrne said to-day the Government could not appeal. The only method he knew of to carry the case farther would be for the Commerce Department to revoke the Zenith Corporation's license.

In assuming office, General Pangalos ordered the liberation of all political prisoners and journalists accused of attempted sedition, including M. Papanasatasion, former Premier, and General Condylis, former Minister of War.

SIR M. CARTER BACK FROM TRIP TO RHODESIA

Investigated Land Rights of Whites and Natives in South African Territory

Sir Morris Carter, of London, was a passenger arriving from the Far East by the liner Empress of Russia to-day after completing an important mission in Rhodesia for the British Government. He comes from the land of the Matabele after investigating the division of large territorial tracts as affecting the rights of whites and natives.

Although the findings of Sir Morris relative to his Rhodesian mission have been completed, they will not be made public until they have been considered by the British Government, and the commissioner was not inclined to discuss at length the nature of his investigations.

The scheme, Sir Morris pointed out, has nothing to do with land settlement in Rhodesia, having solely to do with the rights of whites and natives in the acquirement of land tracts.

Sir Morris Carter took passage from Capetown to Hongkong, where he joined the Empress of Russia for the transpacific trip. He is returning direct to London.

Col. the Hon. J. R. Browslow, a retired British army officer who has seen considerable service in India, was a through passenger, arriving from the Orient to-day en route to England.

Lieut.-Col. A. J. Maunsell, accompanied by Mrs. Maunsell, also arrived from the Orient to-day by the Canadian Pacific liner.

COURT TO INTERPRET U.S. LIQUOR TREATY

Supreme Tribunal of Republic to Rule on Case of Men of Steamer Quadra

Washington, April 19.—The Supreme Court of the United States consented to-day to interpret the rum treaty with Great Britain. It granted an appeal in a case from San Francisco, in which George Ford, George Harris and J. Evelyn, British subjects, and Vincent Quartaro and Charles H. Belanger challenged a construction of the treaty given by the Federal District Court for Northern California. The men named were convicted on a conspiracy charge, which alleged they had landed liquor in San Francisco from the steamer Quadra, lying off the Farallone Islands. They challenged the jurisdiction of a federal court to try persons under the treaty for offences alleged to have been committed outside its district.

NATIONS WATCH TURKEY AS ARMY IS INCREASED

Foreign Minister in Athens Denies Italy and Greece Have Made Secret Agreement Against Turkey, But the Angora Government Calls Several Classes to Colors; Hinted Mussolini Considering Action in Asia Minor and Greeks Have Eyes on Thrace.

Constantinople, April 19.—Though rumors have been current of a possible conflict between Turkey and Italy, the Constantinople newspapers declare there is nothing abnormal in the situation and refuse to credit the suggestion that Italy would make an unprovoked attack on Turkey. Three express satisfaction, however, that the Government is taking all necessary precautions.

There is considerable nervousness among the people because of the urgent action of the Turkish recruiting bureau in calling up the classes twenty-one and twenty-two years of age, as well as all reserve men of the ages of twenty-three to twenty-six.

Athens, April 19.—Foreign Minister Rouples to-day denied the report of the existence of an agreement between Italy and Greece against Turkey.

MUCH SPECULATION

London, April 19.—Turkey's new levy of army conscripts is causing general speculation and is regarded in various quarters as giving substance to recent rumors of contemplated Italian or Italian-Greek aggression at Turkey's expense.

Turkey is calling up the military classes of men of twenty-one and twenty-two years of age, and the reserve men of from twenty-three to twenty-six. The urgent action of the Turkish recruiting bureau is said to be causing considerable nervousness among the people of Turkey.

SUGGESTS DANGER

While there is nothing concrete on which to base fears of an attack on Turkey, in political circles the opinion is advanced that the smoke indicates the presence of fire and Turkey's action in increasing the peace footing of her army consequently is highly suggestive of danger.

Rumors have been printed in London newspapers of late, attributing to Premier Mussolini a design to enlist Greek support for his imperial ambitions and alleging Greece has made long credit contracts with Italy for supplies of rifles, tanks and other munitions which could only be used against Turkey in Thrace.

THRACE AS PRIZE

The idea underlying these rumors is that in the event of Mussolini taking action in Asia Minor, President Pangalos of Greece would attack Thrace.

BIG OSHAWA AUTO PLANT AGAIN WORKS

General Motors Corporation Puts 3,000 Men Back at Jobs; to Fill Contracts

Oshawa, Ont., April 19—Work was resumed at the plant of the General Motors Corporation of Canada here this morning after a cessation of two days, following the reduction of the duties on imported motor cars announced in the budget speech of Hon. J. A. Robb, Minister of Finance. All the employees, numbering about 3,000, returned.

R. S. McLaughlin, general manager, on Saturday stated the plant would discontinue manufacture of four lines of motor cars and that these in future would be imported complete from the United States. The plant was resuming operations, he stated, to fulfill outstanding contracts.

TO CLEAR OUT STOCK

Toronto, April 19.—The Durant Motor Car Company of Canada will reopen its Toronto plant to-morrow for the purpose of liquidation of stock.

Officials of the parent organization in the United States were here to-day for a conference with local officials to decide the future policy of the Canadian factory, as the situation after the present stocks have been sold is said to be doubtful.

The plant of the Dodge Motor Car Company of Canada remained closed to-day and the time of its reopening is uncertain.

At the Willy's-Overland plant, the manufacture of Willys cars was discontinued to-day, this making necessary a reduction of about 100 in the number of employees.

TEMPORARY PLANS

Resumption or possible resumption of operations at these plants and at the plant of the General Motors Corporation at Oshawa are at present temporary measures, it is announced, as in most cases company officials have not yet been able to decide on a definite and permanent policy following the reductions of duties on imported cars.

Steps toward the formulation of a general policy will be taken at a meeting here on Wednesday of the automotive manufacturers' section of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association.

AGED BARRISTER DIED

Kingston, Ont., April 19.—William H. Sullivan, eighty-three, one of the oldest lawyers in Canada, died here yesterday. He had practised law for almost sixty years.

DROUGHT BROKEN HEAVIER RAINS HERE PREDICTED

All B.C. to Feel Benefit of Showers Before To-morrow, Observatory Forecasts

To-night Will See Substantial Precipitation; Forests Need Much More Moisture

Drought which had been threatening British Columbia with the worst forest fire situation in its history and serious damage to crops, particularly on Vancouver Island, has definitely broken, F. Napier Denison, superintendent of Gonzales Observatory, announced to-day.

Showers may be expected all along the coast and on the island to-day with a substantial rain to-night, Mr. Denison said.

"The rain will work in from the coast to the Okanagan country and right into the Kootenays by to-night, I believe," Mr. Denison added. "It may be only in the form of showers in the interior but it will help the situation. The coast generally experienced showers yesterday and to-day and light rains fell in the Cariboo and Kamloops districts. The showers will develop into a heavier rain here to-night, according to all indications. In any case, the weather is generally unsettled."

MORE RAIN NEEDED

"The public should understand," Mr. Denison emphasized, "that our forests have been so utterly dried out by the prolonged drought that it will require a soaking rain to dampen them and so prevent fire outbreaks. The floor of the forest is dry in the extreme now and we need a great deal of rain to make the situation satisfactory from the standpoint of safety."

Forestry officials at the Parliament Buildings said the showers of yesterday and to-day had brought a measure of temporary relief but declared that the possibility of forest fire outbreaks was still acute. A few days of warm windy weather would overcome al. the effects of the rain which has fallen so far in a very short time, they said. If the rain predicted for to-night proves really heavy, however, the situation will show a big improvement.

FARMS NEED MOISTURE

Farmers as well as fire fighters are hoping that the present wet spell will bring a really heavy rain before it is succeeded by bright weather. The rain which has fallen so far has scarcely penetrated into the soil and many farming districts, particularly those on the Island, are alarmed over the prospect of a worse year than 1925 when many farm crops suffered seriously from drought.

THIEF IN TORONTO ESCAPED WITH $3,300

Robber Took Money From Business Man as He Was Entering Bank

Toronto, April 19—A gunman, who afterward escaped in a motor car, to-day held up W. J. Dockerey, vice-president of the Acme Dairy Company of Toronto, as he was entering a branch of the Bank of Montreal here and robbed him of $3,300.

Mr. Dockerey was about to deposit the money in the bank. It was the proceeds of the week-end business of the company. The gunman poked a revolver at him and snatched away the satchel containing the money. He jumped into the car, which was waiting with engine running and a driver at the wheel, and sped away.

YARROWS KEPT BUSY WITH VARIOUS REPAIR CONTRACTS

During the next week Yarrows Limited, Esquimalt shipbuilders, will be busy with a number of repair contracts. According to an announcement made this morning they will haul out the Canadian Pacific coastwise steamer Princess Charlotte to-morrow morning in the Government drydock for her annual overhauling and general survey. The automobile ferry Motor Princess was hauled out on the marine railway this morning for her annual overhaul.

The Princess Charlotte will be given a thorough overhauling before she is put into service on the triangle run on April 21. Her tail shaft and propellers will be inspected, and a new main mast will be installed. Yarrows built the mast some time ago.

The Motor Princess's hull will be given its annual Spring cleaning and painting, while her engines will also be tuned up in preparation for her season's work on the run between Vancouver and Nanaimo. The vessel will be on Yarrow's cradle for three or four days.

Yesterday afternoon the C.G.M.M. freighter Canadian Seigneur, which was berthed in the Government drydock by Yarrows for repairs, left for Vancouver, where she will commence to load cargo for the United Kingdom.

Repairs on the tug Burrard Chief, which stranded on one of the Flat Top Islands a ffew weeks ago, are practically completed and the vessel will be ready to resume operations in a day or so.

Work on the second caisson for the new Government drydock is being pushed ahead, the drydock gate now being ballasted.

The seine boats being constructed for the Canadian Packing Corporation are reaching the advanced stages, and the second of these craft will be ready for launching in a short time. The Ribac., the first of these staunch fishing boats to be launched, is nearly completed and will be ready to hand over to the company in a brief time.

The Victoria Tug Company's new tug Strath, which has been having her Diesel engines installed by Yarrows, will soon be ready to take her initial cruise.

U.S. FINANCIERS CHILLED AS CANADIAN TARIFF CUTS BIG, EASY MOTOR PROFITS

New York, April 19.—Heavy selling of automobile shares on the New York Stock Exchange and curb markets has resulted from the proposal of the Canadian Government to reduce the tariff on auto imports which has been in force for several years. The selling of stocks also was that some American plants have been shut down temporarily.

In conservative financial quarters, where Canadian industrial developments are watched closely, the opinion was expressed that the proposed reduction in the Canadian automobile tariff if adopted by Parliament, would not necessarily mean the end of the manufacture and assembling of United States cars in Canada. The only direct result of such a change, according to the opinion, would be to reduce their profits.

Assembled United States cars, it is explained, have been sold to the Canadian public plus the tariff, thus adding to the profits of the Canadian subsidiaries of the United States companies.

Doubt is being expressed that the rates would be reduced to a level which would invite competition for cars assembled in this country. Such a procedure, it is assured, would harm the Canadian manufacturers more than the system now in force.

Regarding the operations of the Ford Company of Canada, it is claimed that this company can continue to carry on operations on a profitable basis because of the reciprocal trade agreement between Canada and other British colonies. The Ford Motor Company of Canada, besides the Canadian markets, has the exclusive sale rights for the British Empire, exclusive of Great Britain and Ireland.

FIVE-DAY WEEK IN VANCOUVER OPPOSED

Board of Trade Asked to Vote on Resolution at Meeting on Wednesday

Vancouver, April 19.—Opposing the five-day week the council of the Vancouver Board of Trade will bring in a resolution to this effect at the next meeting of the board on Wednesday, according to a notice sent out to the members.

The council's resolution is: "That we are of the opinion it is not in the best interests of the industrial and commercial life of the city of Vancouver that any change should be permitted to be made in the existing period of work, namely, five and a half days per week, and that we are entirely opposed to the suggestions that have been made to bring in a five-day week in the city of Vancouver."

Continuing, the notice states claims of the exponents of the five-day week: That the main object is to spread work over a longer period; that it will stimulate activity in the Winter months, particularly in the building trades, and that the workingmen are entitled to a rest on Saturday.

"Your council feels the tide has turned," says the notice, "and that we are on the threshold of more prosperous times, and a step such as is suggested by some of the trades unions would be retrograde and would certainly have a serious effect on future conditions."

NO GAINS AT RIFF PEACE CONFERENCE

Camp Berteaux, Morocco, April 19—The Moroccan armistice conference broke up last evening after a seven-hour sitting, with the French, Spanish and Riffian delegates in complete disagreement. The opening of the official conference at Oudja, whereby it was hoped to terminate the strife in Morocco and bring peace to the land, has been postponed without date. The conference was to have been held to-day.

The French and Spanish delegations have granted the Riffians three days' delay for definite acceptance or refusal of the terms offered and it is still hoped a resumption of the war may be avoided.

The terms emphatically set forth that Abd-el-Krim will not be recognized, and demand that the French troops be permitted to advance seven kilometres along the front.

Chinese Strikers In Macao Fired on Portuguese Troops

Hongkong, April 19.—Chinese strike pickets stationed in the outskirts of Macao yesterday fired upon and wounded several Portuguese soldiers stationed on garrison duty. The Portuguese returned the fire, whereupon the Chinese retired.

The Portuguese strongly protested to the authorities at Canton

Shipping Board Balked by Senate In Sale of Fleet

Washington, April 19—The Senate to-day adopted a resolution calling for the rejection by the United States Shipping Board of the bid of R. Stanley Dollar for the purchase of the Admiral-Oriental liners.

The resolution offered by Senator McNary, Republican, Oregon, was adopted unanimously without discussion or a rollcall. It charges that the Shipping Board had voted to accept the $4,500,000 bid of Dollar and failed to open a higher offer made by another bidder.

If Dollar obtains the line, the resolution said, the Dollar interests would have a monopoly of the shipping of the Pacific and would separate the line to the detriment of the Northwest and particularly the port of Seattle, as their interests were in California.

ONTARIO ELECTION EXPECTED IN JUNE

Toronto, April 19.—The Toronto Star says in an item in its news columns:

"In circles close to the Government of Ontario the date of the provincial general election is figured to fall on Monday, June 28, or Wednesday, June 30. Decision is expected to be made this week, though dissolution of the Legislature may not be announced until next week.

Recent unofficial reports have been to the effect the Ferguson Government Conservative, would go to the people with a straight proposal of sale of liquor in the Province under a system of Government control.

SCHUBERT CLUB TO GIVE MAY RECITAL

Ladies' Choir Busy Also Preparing For Musical Festival

In preparation for their second recital of this season to be held Tuesday, May 11, the Schubert Club, consisting of over twenty lady members, is earnestly working to surpass even the high standard already attained by them in their previous recitals.

The generous support of those interested in the advancement of good music is hoped for to enable them to succeed in their efforts to take part in the B.C. Musical Festival to be held in Vancouver in June.

The two test numbers, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," Schubert's beautiful composition for female voices, and "Meet and Right It Is," by Turchaninoff, an unaccompanied number, will be included in the opening group on the programme. The major part of the recital, however, will be the singing of Wilfred Bendall's setting of Tennyson's "The Lady of Shalott," in cantata form. The flowing movement of this beautiful music is very descriptive of the poetic character of the composition. Miss Gladys Farnell, by courtesy of the B.C. Dramatic School, will read the poem prior to the choir's rendering of same.

PHILIP KASTEL GUILTY OF FRAUD

New York, April 19—Philip Kastel, known as "Daddy Phil," was found guilty in federal court here Saturday by the third jury which had tried him on charges of mail frauds and bucket shop operations in connection with the bankrupt brokerage house of Daniel Dillon & Co. After deliberating twenty-three hours, the jury returned the verdict, recommending clemency. The two previous trials of Kastel had ended in the jurors disagreeing.

Kastel was arrested in San Francisco in January and was brought to New York to face trial. After two panels of jurymen had failed to reach a verdict United States District Attorney Emory R. Buckner decided to conduct the Government's case personally.

Judge Hand set Thursday for hearing motions to set aside the verdict. Bail for Kastel was continued at $10,000, to be increased to $20,000 to-day.

CITY FIRM ON OAK BAY WATER COST DISPUTE

Ready to Explain Sound Basis For Position Taken or to Arbitrate

Backed by independent legal advice in addition to the view of its solicitor and consultant opinion, the City intends to stand firm on its policy in regard to the cost of water service to the municipality of Oak Bay. This announcement was made to-day by Mayor Pendray, who added that the city would do all in its power to settle its differences with Oak Bay amicably.

WILL ARBITRATE

If, however, Oak Bay officials, after access to the city books recently accorded, cannot see eye to eye with the city's technical advisers, the issue will proceed at once to arbitration in some form or other. While it hopes that this may be avoided the city is prepared to present its case to any tribunal of competent authority with an assurance of sure legal ground upon which to put forwards its arguments.

The city will move soon towards calling a further conference with Oak Bay heads to lay its cards fully on the table. If Oak Bay cannot agree after the situation is thus explained, arbitration will result, it is stated.

SAANICH AGREES

The water committee of the City Council and its advisory group met at 1 p.m. to-day and entered into a further consideration of the rough draft of its agreement with Saanich. In this, it is proposed, Saanich will pay 10 cents per 1,000 gallons, with a rebate of thirty-three and a third per cent for bills in excess of $10 for the two-month period in which they are returnable. The plan is attacked by scattered objectors in the city, but is halted generally by city officials as the best solution yet found to the long outstanding differences.

PATTULLO GOES TO OKANAGAN COUNTRY

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, will leave here to-night for the Okanagan country in order to inspect the work of the Government's South Okanagan Irrigation Project around Oliver. Mr. Pattullo expects to return here late in the week. A rock slide recently damaged some hundred yards of the main irrigation ditch in the irrigated area and Mr. Pattullo is anxious to inspect the repairs which have been made there.

AGED RESIDENT DIED YESTERDAY

The death occurred yesterday morning at the residence of her son, James Taylor, of 1730 Bay Street, of Mrs. Ann Taylor, aged eighty-nine years and eleven months. She was a native of Perthshire, Scotland, and had been a resident of Victoria for thirty-two years. She leaves her son, five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren to mourn their loss. The funeral will be held from the Sands Funeral Chapel to-morrow at 3.45, proceeding to Royal Oak Burial Park for interment.

Funeral services were held at the B.C. Funeral Chapel on Saturday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock over the remains of James MacLachlan, who passed away at his residence, Glandford Avenue, on Friday morning. Rev. M. G. McKee conducted the services and the remains were laid to rest at Royal Oak Burial Park. The following gentlemen acted as pallbearers: Messrs. H. McPherson, R. W. Laing, George Rogers, J. B. Shaw and G. L. Cummine. The late Mr. MacLachlan went to Winnipeg in 1870 with the Wolseley expedition and then came West with the C.P.R. Construction Company, and after arriving in British Columbia was in the Kootenay district, Yukon and Atlin. He leaves his widow, Mrs. V. S. MacLachlan, secretary of Women's Institutes of British Columbia; one son, Hugh, and two daughters, Margaret and Irene.

Funeral service was held at the Thomson Funeral Home, 1625 Quadra Street, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the late Albert Paul Zala. The Rev. W. G. Wilson, of the First United Church, conducted the service and the hymn sung was "Nearer, My God, to Thee." Mrs. S. M. Morton sang a solo, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," and Lawton Partington presided at the organ. There was an unusually large attendance of sympathizing friends present, and many beautiful floral designs covering the casket and hearse bore testimony to the high esteem in which the late Mr. Zala was held by his many friends. The Boys' Naval Brigade Band, under the direction of Bandmaster A. J. Hodgkins, preceded the hearse up to Caledonia Avenue, playing the "Dead March in Saul." Among those present at the service was Tom Wilson, representing the Canadian Legion. The following acted as pallbearers: Albert Rumsby, Ernie Impet, A. L. Hickling, Herbert Merley, R. Newbury and L. Whittaw represented the Tubercular Veterans' Association. The body was laid to rest in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

CAR SKIDS INTO HEADLONG CRASH

the disabled car were not more than bruised and shaken. Mr. Hunter gives no reason for the mishap.

"I can only say that I lost control of it," he said this morning. "She seemed to skid over the bank."

"As I turned at the corner to come into the main road after passing over the Craigflower Bridge and just as I reached the old Craigflower School, the car started to skid. I could not bring her head away from the bank. I had stepped on the gas a little and we were going at a reasonable rate of speed, but not what might be called fast. She just skidded gently and we went off the road, over the edge and down to the beach, doing a somersault, as though I had intentionally driven over the edge. It was the biggest surprise of my life," concluded Mr. Hunter.

The car was not badly damaged and the other three occupants were not hurt in any way. They were somewhat shaken, however. Two of them were ladies.

GOVERNOR-GENERAL INDISPOSED ON TOUR

fore the end of the week, when the programme as previously arranged will be taken up and such places as are necessarily missed on the way West will be included on the return programme.

OLD WAR WOUND

The infection is in the left foot, and is understood to have been caused by irritation of an old war wound. The Governor-General himself makes light of the affair, but is willing to obey the advice of his physician and the urgings of his wife and other members of the party to give it every opportunity for rapid healing.

Lady Byng told the war veterans' guard of honor how disappointed her husband was at not being able to meet them. She shook hands with large numbers of people at the Armories, giving special attention to the school children, and at her request the city schools, which had been closed for the forenoon, remained closed for the afternoon as well.

Winnipeg, April 19—Arrangements for a civic reception here in honor of Baron Byng, Governor-General of Canada, and Lady Byng were cancelled to-day when Lieut.-Governor Sir James Aikins received a telegram from Port Arthur announcing the Governor-General's inability to attend the ceremonies planned.

Sir James Aitkins and Mayor Ralph Webb of Winnipeg will meet the Governor-General's train when it reaches Winnipeg on its way west and express the regrets of Winnipeg citizens and consult as to a future reception.

If the schedule of Lord Byng's farewell Western Canadian tour is carried out, he and Lady Byng will visit Victoria about the middle of May.

MOTORIST PLUNGES FROM SAANICH ROAD

J. E. Sladen Narrowly Escapes Serious Injury When Car Leaps Embankment

J. E. Sladen narrowly escaped death this morning while driving his automobile towards town, when he crashed from the roadway at the bottom of the decline known as Rithet's Hill on the East Saanich Road. The car turned completely over. Mr. Sladen was not even scratched.

Police officers of the Saanich Department who rushed to the scene of the accident, found Mr. Sladen already on his feet, he having extricated himself from where he lay beneath the car.

Chief of Police Hastings of Saanich, gave the story to The Times to-day.

"Mr. Sladen was driving towards town and went to pass another car traveling in the same direction near the bottom of Rithet's Hill," said the Chief. "There was another vehicle coming from the opposite direction at the same time and in an attempt to swing far to the outside and avoid a collision, the Sladen car left the road, leaped the embankment and dived through the brush to a landing place in the meadow below."

Chief Hastings said it was amazing that Mr. Sladen had escaped.

SEARCH IN SEATTLE

Seattle, April 19—Seattle police and detectives were searching this city to-day for the five Portland money car bandits on advices received from Portland authorities that the desperadoes had headed this way.

The Portland police furnished Du Cett with complete descriptions of the bandits.

DECORATION STARTED FOR CONVENTION

All these thoroughfares will be arrayed with lines of bunting stretched across the roadway, with the Rotary wheel emblem holding the centre location in each line of flags. Ensigns of Canada and the United States will alternate with Rotary blue and gold banners, and red, white and blue bunting will also be extensively used.

At the Armories and the Royal Victoria Theatre duplicates of the "Welcome" banners at the Inner Harbor will be flown. As the headquarters of the convention, the Royal Victoria Theatre is being elaborately decorated within and without, while the drill hall of the Armories, where the luncheons will be held, will be a blaze of colorful bunting.

The Empress Hotel and the Marine Building of the Canadian Pacific Coastwise Services are being specially decorated for the convention, the Parliament Buildings will welcome the Rotarians by illumination and other decorations, and the Post Office will complete a waterfront impression of color with a special array of bunting.

The Hudson's Bay Company has brought over from their Vancouver premises every flag available, and will reinforce this display with Rotary blue and gold banners and streamers.

David Spencer Limited are making elaborate preparations for decoration of their premises, and will be the centre of one of the most colorful displays ever seen in Victoria, practically every store and office in the surrounding block having in hand unusual decorative schemes, chiefly featuring the Rotary colors and the gold and blue Rotary wheel.

The City Hall will be decorated in honor of the convention, and many private citizens are proposing decoration of their homes in honor of the 2,000 guests who will arrive for the big conference.

VOLCANO DESTROYS HAWAIIAN VILLAGE

Community of Hoopuloa, on Island of Hawaii, Wiped Out By Stream of Lava

Kona, Territory of Hawaii, April 19.—The village of Hoopuloa, on the southwest shore of the Island of Hawaii, was completely wiped out yesterday morning by an avalanche of lava that burst forth from the volcano Mauna Loa. Ten to fifteen homes were engulfed, but there is no report what became of the inhabitants.

A flood of molten rock, pouring from the crater, struck the sea at 6.21 a.m., starting the ocean boiling several hundred feet out at sea.

Plunging into the water just south of Hoopuloa, the lava turned in the direction of Kona, filling the bay and completely burying the landing and from ten to fifteen homes located in the vicinity. All houses and the wharf at Hoopuloa were engulfed under fifty feet of lava, the postoffice being the last building to go. It burst into flames at 8.30 a.m.

As the stream of lava, which flowed from the 8,000-foot level in approximately four days, approached the ocean Saturday afternoon it split into two branches. Eight hundred feet from the water one stream turned towards Hoopuloa and the other started toward Milolili.

Old Hawaiian kahunas started incantations in the ancient form of appeal to Pele (a Hawaiian goddess associated with the volcano Kilauea) not to destroy their homes any more. The steady onrush of lava continued its course of destruction.

Boston Marathon Won by Canadian

Boston, April 19.—An unheralded Canadian distance runner, John C. Miles, of Sydney Mines, Nova Scotia, defeated a field of 112 international track stars to-day in winning the Boston Athletic Association's Marathon in the record time of 2 hours 25 minutes 4 2-5 seconds.

The old record, set in 1924 by Clarence De Mar, noted United States distance man over the same course of twenty-six miles 385 yards, was 2 hours 29 minutes 40¼ seconds.

HEED THE WARNING OF THAT COLD

Take a hot lemonade when you first suspect a cold, and immediately go to bed under warm covers.

In the morning—nine times out of ten—every trace of cold has disappeared together with the danger of pneumonia, "flu" and other ills that start with colds.

It's the cheapest, easiest, sanest way to handle colds.

Just squeeze the juice of a California lemon in glass or cup of hot water. The effectiveness of hot lemonade is due to more than the heat. Add sugar if you wish.

Get a dozen California lemons now—take hot lemonade tonight.

Ask for California lemons, the tart, juicy, practically seedless kind. They make the most effective lemonade for colds.—Adv.

Nature Will Punish Your Child if You Fail to Give Him These Five Essential Food Elements!

NATURE will not be cheated. She makes certain fixed, fundamental demands of us. She demands that we give our bodies certain food elements in correct proportions—or else the body suffers.

Especially is this true of children, who are growing, building tissue and bone and nerve, burning up boundless energy. No matter how bountiful, how appetizing the food in your home, if it lacks the five essential elements, your children will be undernourished.

The food expert who originated Grape-Nuts realized that there was danger in our unbalanced modern diet. He designed this famous food especially to supply the essential elements of nutrition—dextrins, maltose and other carbohydrates for heat and energy; iron for the blood; phosphorus for teeth and bones; protein for muscle and body-building; and the essential vitamin-B.

Made from whole wheat and malted barley, Grape-Nuts contains all the precious goodness of these two wonderful grains. A special baking process makes it wonderfully easy to digest. And gives it a tempting, nut-like flavor like nothing else you've ever tasted.

Try Grape-Nuts for your children's cereal to-morrow. Four teaspoonfuls, costing less than one cent, is a generous helping. Your youngster will love it—and will derive extra benefit from its crispness, which exercises the teeth and gums.

Grape-Nuts may be given to children from about the age of one year. But for the very young it should be softened by pouring over it hot water or hot (not boiled) milk.

Grape-Nuts comes to you in a wax-wrapped package, all ready to serve. Get it from your grocer—or you may want to accept the following offer.

A Series of Health Breakfasts With Two Servings of Grape-Nuts—FREE!

Mail the coupon and we will send you two individual packages of Grape-Nuts, free—enough for two breakfasts. We will also send you "A Book of Better Breakfasts", containing menus for a series of delightful health breakfasts—and written by a former college physical director. Follow these menus and you will soon find that better breakfasts mean better days.

GOOD BUSINESS

IN FIXING WATER RATES THE CITY authorities are quite justified in giving special consideration to industry and agriculture. By doing this they are encouraging industrial and agricultural development from which the people of this district derive benefits which far outweigh any disabilities which these concessions may impose upon them. We already have given special rates in water and taxation to more than one establishment in Victoria. The Empress Hotel is an important case in point. But who will say that the people of this city have not derived from this utility, directly and indirectly, advantages which more than balance the cost of these concessions to them? We have undertaken to give taxation exemption for the promotion of industrial development at the outer wharves, but who begrudges this if that development gives the city an imposing pay-roll, brings shipping and expands the prosperity of the port? If by means of favorable water rates we encourage industry in our city and help to increase the agricultural production of the fertile acres of Saanich we are doing a good stroke of business for everybody in the district. We are doing what every other progressive community on this coast is quick to do when the opportunity offers.

"GOLDEN OPINIONS FROM ALL SIDES"

IT IS NOT SURPRISING THAT THE budget which Hon. Mr. Robb presented to the House of Commons last Thursday should result in the Dominion Government, as The Vancouver Daily Province reminds us, "reaping the reward for its courage in golden opinions from all sides." It was obviously a popular declaration of policy because its provisions are a practical reaffirmation of the doctrine of the greatest good to the greatest number—a democratic budget in every sense of the term. Incidentally it is also a complete answer to the charge that the Government is neither willing nor able to present any definite policy to the country because it is compelled to rely upon the support of a third party to give effect to its proposals. In fact we are not sure that if it had not been for the Progressives the country would have received such an extremely pleasant surprise last week.

Nor are the golden opinions which the Government is winning from all sides confined to the various schools of thought in Canada. That cold and calculating critic of Dominion and Old Country affairs, The Financial Times of London, makes no secret of its approval of Mr. Robb's speech. It says, in fact, that the budget fully justifies "all that has recently been said of Canada's steadily-increasing prosperity," while it likewise emphasizes the fact that "the branches of revenue that are most productive are those which constitute the best indication of general well-being."

Noteworthy in the comment of The Financial Times is the recognition that the tax reductions will substantially benefit the general public and should release a considerable volume of purchasing power which will play a part in assisting to fulfill Mr. Robb's predictions and "also increase Canada's investment resources." Then in a final tribute to the Minister of Finance himself the London journal has this to say: "Altogether, Mr. Robb mixed much shrewd imagination and stimulating intuition into his speech," concluding with the hope that "his courage and confidence are handsomely vindicated." This is the first valuable piece of advertising which the budget has earned on the other side. More will follow it.

BOLD, BAD HERRIN

SOME TIME AGO A BODY OF CHICAGO citizens petitioned the United States Government at Washington to take over the enforcement of law and order in their city, because, they said, the municipal and state machinery for the protection of life and property and public morals had broken down. Other interests in Chicago scouted this proposal, alleging that it emanated from a lot of impudent busybodies who were misrepresenting the real situation.

Whether Chicago needs Federal intervention or not, there is one spot in the state of Illinois which requires a stronger hand than has yet made itself apparent. That place is the mining centre of Herrin. Herrin seems to have collected unto itself a large proportion of the most lawless elements of the country. Commencing with the massacre of a score or more of non-union miners a few years ago, its record since then has been marred by a series of murderous outbreaks worse than any which marked the growth of wild communities in the western states sixty years ago when there was no machinery for enforcing law and order. Either Virginia City, Montana, or San Francisco in its most riotous days, was an elysium in comparison with Herrin in one of the most populous states of the republic in this day of grace.

An efficient, honest police force with the prompt judicial executions, following trials conducted in such a way as to impress the primitive, passionate minds of the people of that extraordinary locality with the majesty of the law, would speedily bring Herrin within the pale of civilization. All our neighbor needs to do is to convince its people that its law is no joke, that it proposes to protect life and property to the utmost, and one of its chief worries will disappear.

CRAIGFLOWER SCHOOLHOUSE

THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT IS TO be commended for co-operating with the Saanich School Board and thus making it possible to preserve the Craigflower schoolhouse for the public. This was the first school building to be erected on Vancouver Island and it would be a thousand pities if all its historical associations were to be severed on minor economic grounds. On the other hand it lends itself admirably to conversion into a museum in which could be housed many interesting reminders of the days before the educational machinery in this part of the country had been installed except in this small way. The building already is an object of considerable interest to the many visitors who find enjoyment in delving into local history. It would be of still more interest if it were to be converted into a permanent repository for the numerous souvenirs which would be well worth assembling under its ancient roof.

"SAVE-THE-FORESTS" WEEK

BECAUSE RAIN OVER THE WEEK-END has reduced some of the forest fire hazard in most of the wooded areas of Vancouver Island it must not be supposed that the danger, even at this early stage in the season, is past. Our rainfall has been considerably below the average for the last eighteen months and forestry officials find that the condition of all kinds of forest vegetation is as dry and tinder-like now as it usually is in mid-summer. This fact alone emphasizes the importance of "Save-the-Forests" week which commenced to-day and will be observed all over the Province for the remainder of the week.

These periods in which public attention can be called to public responsibility in the matter of forest protection are arranged every year and it might be expected that the annual loss from sheer carelessness on the part of those who use the wooded areas would dwindle accordingly. Such is not the case. Last year, largely, of course, because of the extremely hot and dry season, the destruction of timber and property through forest fires that could have been prevented with ordinary precaution established a new record. The general public should, therefore, in its own interest, remember the injunction to regard the forests as its own property and govern itself accordingly. Only by the exercise of that care will irreparable damage be avoided.

THE VOICE OF THE WOMEN

LONDON'S WOMEN GENTLY HINTED to trades unionists on Saturday that the hand which rocks the cradle still has something to do with ruling the world. It is just probable that some of those who participated in the parade were a little too aristocratic for a really successful anti-strike demonstration. All the same, the spectacle of nearly twenty thousand women united on a common object in one part of the country may inspire similar feminine action elsewhere. Resort to direct action may not always be avoidable if principles and privileges are to be safeguarded against unscrupulous raids; but it is equally true that the strike ballot is often marked against better judgment because the breadwinner seldom stops to remember that it is the women folk and the children who feel the effects of the missing pay cheque more acutely than the striker. It is the same with every kind of war. The women usually pay and pay heavily. Saturday's demonstration in London, however, may have its sequels in other cities and influence both miners and engineers against a policy that would damage the country's industry and their own interests if prosecuted too far.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

A FINE GOLFER AND A POPULAR ONE

From The Calgary Herald

Hundreds of friends in this city will regret Mr. "Tommy" Morrison's departure for Edmonton. He is a very fine golfer, but his personal qualities far outshine his gifts as a player of the variable game.

He has stood with the top golfers of the West for some years and that is a fair tribute to his prowess, as the West has produced players of much distinction. But—and this reveals the rarer qualities he possesses—he has also played with many of the poorest golfers living. He has played games that he appeared to enjoy with beginners and dubs who will remain dubs forever and ever. He has helped the beginners and has suffered foolish players not merely patiently, but with a smile. To see him in action is a delight to the eye.

The Herald, which has been the admiring historian of so many of his games, wishes Tommy Morrison all the success he deserves, which is a very considerable volume of success indeed.

MENTAL HYGIENE COMMISSION

To the Editor:—In the report of the sitting of the Mental Hygiene Commission more rigid control of migration by the medical board is advocated by one medical witness.

Dr. H. E. Young, Provincial Health Officer, is stated to have criticised the existing Federal laws, which give power to the Minister of Immigration to overrule the medical board—"a power which he should not possess." Another report makes the doctor say that "the Minister of Immigration should not have power to overrule the decisions of a medical board."

The state of things advocated suggests the spectacle of a medical autocracy making decisions which the elected civil authority is powerless to question. And this in a democratic country in the twentieth century. Such a suggestion cuts at he very root of representative government as conceived in the British type of mind, where elected authority must be supreme at all costs.

It conjures up the picture of conditions where people's bodies would no longer be their own. Treatments which in fifty years will be penal offences would be imposed without power of protest or redress.

Referring to the subject of the main enquiry, it is a significant thing that there are practically no Orientals in the mental hospitals. The Oriental for one thing does not take up the life of hardship, and exposure which the immigrant from mid Europeop countries generally faces, and it is this class which appears to form the bulk of the mental cases. There seems nothing to prove that such immigrants would have developed insanity apart from causes which could and should be removed.

REGARDING CROWS

To the Editor:—I suppose when the officials of Dominion Entomologist branch said the crows were destroying twenty-five per cent of cornborers they meant twenty-five per cent of what they could get at.

Well what can the crows get at, only the corn borers that are left in the corn stubble in the field which would be an average of perhaps twelve inches, a corn stalk is usually six to eight feet high thus only one foot of stalk is left in field and other five or seven feet have been drawn to barn or silo for Winter feed for the farmers stock. Thus I say it is doubtful if twenty-five per cent of total corn borer crop is in field, let alone crows eating twenty-five per sent as some government officials would have us believe. Yes some people husk their corn standing but such a small percentage, taking the country as a whole as farmers use their corn fodder for Winter feed for their stock. So I say even taking the Government at their figures if crows did eat twenty-five per cent of corn borers that they could get at that would be a small percentage of total corn borer crop. I read in some papers that the Government statement is only in some localities, that means one corn stalk or one corn field or a few corn fields a man visited in a day or so, thus this would again reduce the twenty-five per cent statement. It would mean twenty-five per cent of corn borers crows could get at in some localities which would certainly be a very, very small percentage of total corn borers in the corn belt of Southern Ontario.

Stop and think, the corn belt is practically seventy-five or 100 miles long and from thirty to sixty miles wide, not saying all this land is in corn, no, but the farmers big dependable crop is corn, which means there are tens of thousands of acres of corn, corn being planted three to four feet apart means there are millions, yes it would run up into billions of hills of corn or corn stalks. Some corn stalks have no corn borers others have from one to a dozen and perhaps more. So who on earth can even give a sane estimate of amount of corn borers on earth, and if corn borers are in corn stalk as they are all the way along stalk and if corn stalk is six or eight feet long and only one foot is left in field well then 5-6 or 7-8 of corn borers are either in farmers barns, in silos or in fodder stocks where crows can't get them, yet The Chatham News of February 26 quotes Mr. G. Crawford of Dominion Entomologist Branch as saying "Crows have reduced corn borers twenty-five per cent." Or it can be worded this way, only 1-6 or 1-8 of corn stalk and corn borers are in field that is providing corn is six or eight feet high which is a conservative estimate of height and one foot of stubble is left in field so at this rate and way of figuring and taking government quotations in several papers that says "Crows have reduced corn borers twenty-five per cent in some localities and they can only get at 1-6 or 1-8, that certainly is a small percentage of total corn-borer crop all over the corn belt and as has been said before, corn-borers have increased in midst of crows to such an alarming state that Hon. John S. Martin, Minister of Agriculture of Ontario, has announced farmers will be compelled to do away with their corn stalks so there will be no more corn-borers for crows to get at and crows will be of no more use than before corn-borers were on earth.

SPRING TONIC

Within a few weeks hundreds of mothers will undoubtedly be mixing sulphur and molasses or some similar concoction and feeding it to their reluctant children, in large doses as a spring tonic. A dozen of other mothers will perhaps spurn this old-fashioned home-made mixture and hie to the nearest drug store for a bottle of Dr. Pink's Purple Pellets or other so-called tonic about the contents of which they know nothing. In the first case faith is placed in the fact that grandmother used sulphur and molasses, and in the second case to the often extravagant statements made on the label.

It is, of course, true that the stimulation of cold weather induces the average person to work harder, indulge in more continuous and interesting activity, and in general to use up more mental, physical and nervous energy than during the warm season of the year. In Winter most of us take less exercise than we need, and spend too little time in the fresh air. Physiological chemists tell us that there are even certain differences in the make-up of the blood in Summer and in Winter.

It is, therefore, not to be wondered at that with the approach of Spring we all usually experience more or less of a languid feeling, a general letting down in strenuousness, a yearning for more fruit and vegetables, a lessened desire for meat, and a longing for the out-door life.

This combination of feelings, often termed "Spring fever" is usually the signal for the giving of Spring tonics, especially to the younger generation.

Let us grant that the body may need something to tone it up in the Springtime. Is it not better to supply that something in nature's way, namely, through the feeding of fresh green foods and fruit, and by taking pains to build up the body in every way including plenty of fresh air, more out-door exercise, an abundance of sleep—than by dosing with home-made mixtures which mostly upset the stomach or with drugstore remedies about which we know only what the manufacturers may claim.

Should we not be sensible on this matter and try nature's method of toning up the system? If then something more seems to be needed it is time to consult a physician, so that a thorough physical examination may be made, an intelligent diagnosis arrived at, and the individual's needs met in a common-sense, scientific manner.

Do You Mean What You Say?

"NAMBY-PAMBY"

This term, which is applied both to weak literary productions and to persons of weak character, was originated by the pet, Pope. He applied it to some puerile verses written by an obscure poet named Ambrose Phillips and addressed to the children of a peer. The first half of the term is meant to be a childish way of pronouncing "Amby", Phillip's nick name, and the last half is merely a jingling word to fit it.

Vancouver Golfers Given Worst Defeat In History of Game

Failed to Win Single Game in Rithet Cup Competition; Second Half in Fall

What is believed to be the worst defeat ever administered to a visiting golf club was handed to the Shaughnessy Golf Club of Vancouver on Saturday by the Victoria Golf Club. The match was the first half of the annual competition for the Rithet Cup and Victoria secured such a commanding lead that it looks as if the trophy will come to the capital this year. The second half of the match will be played in Vancouver in the Fall.

The Vancouver golfers failed to win any of the individual matches. In the singles in the morning Vancouver players halved two of the matches while in the fourballs in the afternoon only one match was halved.

The scores with the visitors mentioned first in each case were as follows:

RIFLE SHOOTING

The Victoria and District Military Rifle Association held their weekly practice shoot on Saturday afternoon at the Heals Ranges. A heavy rain came on just as shooting commenced at the 600-yard range with the result that almost half of the marksmen did not shoot at that range. Capt. G. F. MacKenzie made a very efficient range officer. Seventy-four marksmen were out which is by far the largest number that have been on the range since before the war. The new organization has fully justified itself. The following were the principal scores:

Lawn Bowlers Open Season Under Ideal Conditions Saturday

Lieut.-Governor Rolls First Bowl; Annual Team Match Results in Draw

Lawn bowling got away to a splendid start on Saturday afternoon at the Victoria Lawn Bowling Club, Beacon Hill. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor performed the opening ceremonies and his party included Miss Helen Mackenzie, Hon. Walter Nichol, Sir James Elder, Australian trade commissioner for the United States, and Lady Elder.

The party was welcomed by Rod McDonald, president of the Victoria Club, after which His Honor spoke briefly. He showed an intimate knowledge of the game of bowls, sketching its development.

His Honor rolled a nice bowl to officially open the season and was followed by Hon. Mr. Nichol, who drew well up to the jack. Mr. Nichol wished the bowlers every success in the season which opened under such pleasant conditions.

Alderman William Marchant represented the city at the opening.

Two teams captained by President McDonald and Vice-president Paterson engaged in the annual match which is part of the opening ceremonies and it resulted in a draw, each side scoring 116 points.

PRESENTATION MADE TO MRS. J. D. GORDON

Victoria Women's Institute Also Held Book Shower For Shirley W.I.

A splendid attendance of members was present at the regular business meeting of the Victoria W. I., held Friday, Mrs. Colby, the president, in the chair. The members decided to give a donation of $5 towards the prizes for the potato fair. Letters were received from the Department of Agriculture, Mr. Tanner of the Saanich Fruit Growers' Association, Y.W.C.A., District Builders and dealt with. Mesdames Austin, Redgrave, and Jenkinson were accepted into membership.

Mrs. Dix of the Edmonton W.I. brought greetings and was warmly welcomed.

An interesting event was that of Mrs. J. D. Gordon being presented with a handsome fruit dish by Mrs. Colby as a slight token of appreciation from the members for her kindness in giving the classes on parliamentary procedure, which have been a source of great benefit to all who have attended. A letter of sympathy and appreciation will be sent to the relatives of the late Luther Burbank.

Reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and showed the institute in a prosperous condition and much active interest being taken.

Mrs. Crocker, chairman of the ways and means, reported that a quilting bee will be held on Monday, April 26, and a social evening and country store for Saturday, May 1.

Satisfactory reports were given by the rooms committee and sick visiting. The secretary reported that Madame Kate Webb's pupils had very kindly consented to give the usual monthly concert at the T.B. ward on Tuesday, April 20.

The following conveners were appointed for the Fall fair exhibit: Home cooking, Mrs. Crocker; plain sewing, Mrs. Urquhart; bottled fruits, Mrs. J. D. Gordon; potted meats, fish, etc., Mrs. Scanlelz; jams and jellies, Mrs. Jenkinson; candy, Mrs. Terry; knitting and crocheting, Mrs. Peden; vegetables, Mrs. Taylor; fancy work, Mrs. Austin; art, Mrs. Hale; decorations, Mrs. Colby.

Mrs. Gaskill offered to give a concert jointly for the solarium and the V.W.I. The offer was accepted and will be held in May. Hrs. Hill, who is leaving shortly for Alberta, then demonstrated the care of the hair, skin and scalp. Members of the institute thoroughly enjoyed this interesting and instructive paper which was read and the results were shewn by members who underwent the beautifying process with the assistance of proper creams and hair tonics. Mrs. Hill was accorded a hearty vote of thanks at the close.

A successful book shower was held in aid of Shirley W.I., and members not yet having donated may leave books in the rooms within the next few days.

Royal Oak W.I. Hears Gratifying Reports of Show

At the meeting of the Royal Oak Women's Institute on Wednesday a good amount of business was done. Mrs. Reed, convener of the Bulb Show, gave a splendid report showing a good cash balance from the home cooking stall convened by Mrs. L. A. MacQueen, and afternoon teas, convened by Mrs. Stone, and ice cream by Mrs. Campion, augmenting the funds of the Institute. Mrs. Reed was accorded a very hearty vote of thanks for the efficient way it was carried through. The prizes for the children will be given to-day at the Royal Oak School by Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Campion. Mrs. Campion also gave a little talk on the "Children's Caterpillar Contest," which is open again for boys and girls of the district, and prizes will be competed for.

An invitation was read from the Strawberry Vale W.I. asking Royal Oak W.I. to co-operate with them and Garden City in having Mrs. Toner of Vancouver address a meeting on the "Marketing of Garden Produce," at Strawberry Vale hall.

The Saanich Council asked the Institute to endeavor to obtain names of all those domiciled in Saanich who were killed, or since died of wounds from the Great War, as they are anxious to have the honor roll completed.

The letter from Dr. Barrow on the "District Builders" was tabled. Mrs. Frank Campbell will be asked to address the meeting on this subject at a later date. It was decided that Royal Oak W.I. would again enter the "Potato Fair" to be held in Victoria, also the W.I. exhibit at the Provincial Fall Fair. The Institute will banquet the Royal Oak School football team, for their success at winning the cup this season; Mrs. Campion will be convener.

Mrs. J. D. Gordon, provincial convener of "Institute Work and Method," addressed the members. Mrs. Gordon was accorded a very hearty vote of thanks. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess of the day, Mrs. Hodgson, and Mrs. Coffey acting for Mrs. Menhorn, who was unable to attend.

The 500 card party held in the evening was a big success and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Dainty refreshments were served by the ladies of the Institute. The winner of the lucky chair was Mrs. H. D. Coton, the special hand bid going to Mrs. F. Webster and Mr. J. G. Nicholson. First prize winners for the highest score for the Winter series were Mrs. F. Cariss and Mr. G. Cuthbert; ladies, first, Mrs. W. J. Barker; second, Mrs. H. D. Coton; consolation, Mrs. W. D. Coffey; gentlemen, first, Mr. A. T. Hodgson; second, Mr. W. J. Barker; consolation, Mr. F. J. Coton. The gentlemen will entertain the ladies at a strawberry social, the date to be announced later.

DUCHESS HAS HAD AN ACTIVE CAREER IN MANY FIELDS

Duchess of Atholl a Brilliant Speaker and Active Worker

The Duchess of Atholl, who will arrive in the city to-morrow afternoon and speak at the First United Church under the auspices of the National Council of Education to-morrow evening at 8.15 o'clock, is one of the most outstanding women of Great Britain to-day.

She has a long list of attainments in various fields to her credit, and according to reports received this morning from the East, where she has been addressing meetings, is an unusually brilliant speaker.

Her Grace has represented Kinross and West Perth in the British House of Commons in the Conservative interest since 1923, and has been actively associated with movements for betterment of living conditions and education, particularly in her native Scotland, for more than a quarter of a century and has taken an important part in patriotic work during this time.

Besides her political interests and activities for social betterment, the Duchess finds time for cultivating such subjects as music and painting, and she is also an excellent tennis player. The daughter of Sir James Henry Ramsay, Bart., of Banff, she was educated at Wimbledon High School and continued her studies at the Royal College of Music, London, where she was an honor scholar in piano studies, and received the A.R.C.M. diploma.

IN SOUTH AFRICA

In 1899 she married the eighth Duke of Atholl, going to South Africa with her husband in 1900, remaining there until the end of the Boer War. From 1902, after her return to her residence of Blair Castle, Blair Atholl, in Perthshire, she organized district, or public nursing associations. The beginning of her association with political groups dates from 1908, when she became president of the Perthshire Women's Unionist Association, retaining this post until 1918.

Other activities carried on by the busy Duchess include the following: President of the Perthshire branch of the British Red Cross Society since 1909; member of the departmental committee on medical and nursing service in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland; collected comforts for the Scottish Horse Regiment, 1914-15; organized recreation for troops in Egypt, 1915-16; was a member of the departmental committee on Scottish tinkers or wandering folk, 1917-18; commandant of Blair Castle auxiliary hospital, 1917-19; chairman of the Perthshire Women's Agricultural Committee, 1917-19; member of the Perthshire Education Authority and vice-president of the Association of Education Authorities of Scotland, 1919-24; president, Perthshire County Nursing Federation since 1919; chairman, Scottish Board of Health's Council for Highlands and Islands since 1920.

In addition, the Duchess of Atholl has found time to compose two delightful song collections, one being "Song Flowers from a Child's Garden of Verses" and "Songs of Travel," in which three poems by Robert Louis Stevenson are set to music. She also edited and contributed to "A Military History of Perthshire, 1660 to 1902."

Two little flower girls, Betty Edwards and Edna May Goodall, were frocked in mauve and green, and carried baskets of apple blossoms. Mr. Archie McDonald acted as groomsman and Mr. Albert Goodall, uncle of the bride, gave her in marriage. Mrs. S. A. Sharp played the wedding music. Cowan, K. C., and Mrs. Cowan of Vancouver, B.C., was married to Mr. Aneas McBean Bell-Irving, son of Mr. Henry Bell-Irving of Vancouver. The wedding ceremony, which was fully choral, was performed by Dean Symons and the cathedral was decorated with white blossoms and greenery. The bride, who was given away by Major Irwine, was a charming figure in an exquisite gown of shell pink georgette over charmeuse of a deeper shade, trimmed with gold embroidered net which set off to advantage her petite beauty. A hat of gold lace and gold slippers were worn and the huge bouquet was of pink carnations and lies of the valley tied with long tulle streamers. Mrs. H. Yorke Irwine, the matron of honr, wore a modish costume of pink silk tricotine with a Feboux hat of brown cut felt and velvet and sable stole, and her flowers were pink carnations and lilies. The bridegroom was accompanied by Mr. G. H. Hughes, as best man, while Mr. J. W. King and Mr. H. McDonald were ushers. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of Major and Mrs. Irwine, 283 Yu Yuen Road. Among the guests were Lord and Lady Willingdon, the latter's wedding gift being a beautiful gold and enamel clock. The honeymoon will be spent at Repulse Bay, Hongkong, for which port they left by the Hector."

McGILL HISTORIAN TO LECTURE HERE

Professor Waugh Coming Under Auspices of I.O.D.E. May 1

Professor W. T. Waugh of the faculty of McGill University is making a lecture tour of Canada under the auspices of the I.O.D.E. and will be in Victoria from May 1 to 3. He will speak at a public meeting at the Victoria High School on Saturday evening, May 1, and on the Monday will speak before the students of the High School and the upper grades of the public schools.

Professor Waugh will speak on the subject, "Montcalm and Wolfe," a particularly timely topic in view of the bicentenary of Wolfe to be celebrated next year.

His lecture will deal with the life of Lower Canada, French and English with the various historical circumstances leading up to the acquisition of Canada by Britain, the fighting about Quebec and the effect of the British conquest on Britain and America, as well as on Canada and Canadians.

The lecture will be accompanied by a number of slides, illustrative of French-Canadian life and customs, including a new set especially made—"Legends of the St. Lawrence"—of the life and death of Wolfe and by the famous film "Wolfe and Montcalm," prepared by the Yale University Press. This film is one based on the historical work of Professor G. M. Wrong and was prepared under the supervision of Colonel William Wood, F.R.C.S., the well known authority on the history of Quebec. No care or expense was spared in making this film as perfect as possible, and it is not likely that any more faithful representation of the events portrayed could be produced.

Professor Waugh will come to Victoria under the auspices of the Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., his lecture being in conformity with the educational work of the order.

VICAR'S HOMILY ON RUSSIAN BOOTS

English Minister Does Not Believe in Hiding "Shapely Calves"

London, April 19.—In the most gentle manner possible, the Rev. C. Bradburn Fimlett, vicar of St. Luke's, Barrow, delivers through the parish magazine a homily to the women members of his flock concerning the wearing of Russian boots.

"Dear Girls," writes the vicar, "Do you think you look charming encased in a couple of concertinas? Believe me, we men think you look ridiculous. I do not deny that they are admirable for dirty weather, but why in the name of common sense go about in them when it is fine? If it is cold then wear thicker hose and not the same as you wear in the Summer. But on no account ride shapely calves and ankles in Russian boots all the Winter through.

"Why, whatever do you wear short skirts for? Not merely, I warrant, to do away with dirt, but to display a thing of beauty—a well turned calf and ankle. I am of the opinion that short skirts are a gain both hygienically and artistically. If they cover the 'subject' I cannot for the life of me understand why old-fashioned folks should consider them unseemly.

"You have as much right to show a shapely leg as a bishop has, and if it is covered with a champagne-colored stocking warranted not to ladder, you are contributing a little beauty to life, which is far too drab at best. So my advice is this: 'If you have a pair of Russian boots only wear them on roads that are mucky. If you have not, don't invest in a pair.'"

Sale of Home Cooking—The ladies of St. Martin's Guild, Tillicum, will hold a home cooking stall, by kindness of David Spencer Limited, in the basement on Saturday morning, April 24. Donations will be received up to 10 o'clock. The guild will hold a five-hundred card party at the home of Mrs. J. C. Newbury, Gorge Road, on Wednesday evening, April 21.

WOMEN'S WORLD FAIR IS OPENED

Canadian Housewife Among Outstanding Exhibitors in Chicago

Chicago, April 19.—A Canadian housewife knows some secrets about feeding a family of five on $18 a week. An aged Danish woman builds and carves furniture that money cannot buy. An American woman banker grants no quarter to male contemporaries in fashioning budgets to fit every family purse. And these three queens of kitchen, studio and counting house are among several thousand women who are glorifying their sex at the Women's World Fair which opened to-day.

The mistress of cupboard finance is Mrs. H. N. Aitken of Beeton, Ont., co-proprietor with her husband of a chicken ranch.

The word carver is Miss Christian Jensen of Chicago. Three pieces of her work are on display in the Danish booth of the exposition. It was in Denmark that she learned her art.

The woman banker is head of the budget branch of a Chicago bank, and her computations on balancing of family incomes are in national use. The fair will continue for a week.

Review Plans Social.—Queen Alexandra Review No. 11, W.B.A., met on Friday evening at the Sons of Canada Hall, with the commander, Mrs. MacQueen R. Todd in the chair. As it was a social evening, very little business was transacted. It was decided to hold an old-fashioned social evening with refreshments on Tuesday evening, April 20, at 1230 Government Street. This promises to be a unique affair. The guards will hold a silver tea at the home of Mrs Treadwell, 1714 Davie Street, on April 28. The next meeting of the Review will be held in the K. of C. Hall, May 3, and all members are requested to attend in order to discuss the place and date of future meetings.

YOUR BABY and MINE
by Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

WHAT TO DO FOR COLIC

Some time ago we promised our readers that we would talk about what to do when the baby had colic. If you read the former article on this subject you remember that the most important thing was to discover if the baby was crying because he had colic, from overfeeding, or if he was crying from actual hunger. If he was hungry of course the most stupid thing to do would be to dose him with medicine when all he needed was food, and more of it.

We are taking it for granted then that the baby has colic. One must first of all discover what is wrong with the food that is causing the large angry pains and we must most decidedly end the attack as quickly as possible.

Fennel tea or peppermint water are old and tried remedies. They are selections by the best doctors who have agreed that they not only have a soothing effect on the child but they aid in the digestion of the offending food.

Hot water can be had by everyone and it is harmless in the hands of even the most frightened and timid of mothers. The pain is caused by gas in the stomach or bowels and a few tablespoons of quite hot water (be careful it doesn't burn the child's mouth) will help him to belch and raise the gas. The water can be given from a teaspoon or from a bottle, which the baby will take eagerly, as the hot water relieves his pain.

If the colic comes on an hour or more after eating, the gas may then be in the intestines and can be best relieved by the use of a warm enema. Use a small bulb syringe, have the water warm, and grease the tip well with vaseline. The baby will be immensely relieved as soon as the water and gas have been ejected.

Everyone knows that when a baby has true colic he gets cold and blue and his poor little "tummy" swells all up and grows rigid. The attack will be lessened and the baby relieved if he is wrapped warmly and a hot water bottle is put on his small stomach. Change his position frequently as this helps to bring up the gas. A child can't belch or expel gas easily when lying flat on his back, so think of this and raise him occasionally to help things along.

Remember, then, hot water by mouth first, then a warm enema and keep the baby warm, and a hot water bottle on his abdomen. Having done all these things to relieve the attack, correct his food in such a way to ward off further ones. Colic is a miserable big pain for small babies to have to wrestle with.

QUEEN MARIE NOT TO CHANGE CHURCH

Decides Not to Renounce Roman Catholic Faith

Bucharest, Rumania, April 19.—Queen Marie, it is authoritatively stated, has given up the idea of renouncing her Roman Catholic faith with the idea of joining the Greek Orthodox Church.

Last week it was reported the Rumanian Queen would embrace the Orthodox faith because she felt there was need for her to become closer to the spiritual relations of her children, who are members of the Greek Church.

HOSPITAL TAG DAY COLLECTION BIGGEST FOR THREE YEARS

Gratifying evidence of the sympathy of the public with the Provincial Jubilee Hospital and its work was shown on Saturday when the Women's Auxiliary tag day netted the sum of $1,129.52. This was the largest sum received for three years, and as there was an absence of cheques or large donations, it may be taken as one of the signs of increasing prosperity in Victoria.

This morning the collection was further augmented by a cheque for $100 from Hon. W. C. Nichol.

The convener, Mrs. Herbert Pendray, and her assistants are most grateful to the generous public, to the taggers, to the Melrose Company for the use of its store, to the tellers of the Bank of Montreal, and to all who assisted in the successful issue of their efforts.

SAANICH WOMAN CALLED BY DEATH

There passed away on Saturday afternoon at the residence of her brother-in-law, 3484 Doncaster Drive, Saanich, Mrs. Ann Olson. She is mourned by her two sisters, Mrs. Sellars, with whom she resided; Miss Mary Clough, and brother-in-law, Mr. B. Sellars, and a nephew and niece at Port Renfrew. The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon from McCall Bros. Funeral Home, corner of Johnson and Vancouver Streets, at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Royal Oak Burial Park.

To Mark St. George's Day—Lodge Princess Alexandra, Daughters and Maids of England, held their meeting on Thursday in the K. of P. Hall, Mrs. Hatcher, worthy president, in the chair. Several visitors were present including the worthy president, Mrs. Skinner, of Lodge Primrose. A good amount of business was done. The new by-laws submitted to the Grand Lodge have been approved. Arrangements are being made for taking part in the Victoria Day celebrations, also the annual church service to be held at St. John's Church, June 6. Mrs. Harrison of Lodge Primrose has been elected by acclamation D.D.G.P. for the ensuing term. A communication was received from the Royal Society of St. George, with invitations to a dance to be held at the Hudson's Bay, Friday, April 23. Tickets may be secured from the secretary. Refreshments were served after the meeting by Mrs. Kendall and helpers.

Uncle Wiggily Goes Fishing

Copyright, 1926, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate

By HOWARD R. GARIS

"What's the matter?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

Whistling a merry little toodle-oodle tune, Uncle Wiggily Longears hopped down the road one morning. Over his shoulder he carried a long, slender pole.

"Oh, ho," grunted Mr. Twistytail, the gentleman pig, as he saw the rabbit, "are you going to help Mother Goose brush the cobwebs off the sky, Uncle Wiggily, with that long pole you carry?"

"No, indeed!" laughed the bunny uncle, "I am going fishing."

And, all of a sudden, Mr. Twistytail began to cry.

"What's the matter?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "Have you the toothache?"

"Oh, no! no! no!" sobbed Mr. Twistytail, and tears fell from his eyes.

"Then why do you cry?" asked Mr. Longears. "Perhaps your wife has the toothache and you are crying for her. Is that it?"

"Oh, no!" sobbed the gentleman pig. "I am crying because you are going fishing!"

"Ha! Ha!" laughed Uncle Wiggily, twinkling his pink nose. "I see! You are crying because you can not also go fishing! But you can! I invite you to come with me! Don't cry any more!"

But Mr. Twistytail only shed more tears and sobbingly he said:

"No! No! It isn't that! I don't want to go fishing with you! But I can't help crying, Uncle Wiggily, when I think of you catching the poor fish on the sharp hook! Oh, how that hook must hurt the poor fish!"

"I don't believe it hurts them very much," said the rabbit. "Fish are made to be caught so what's the use worrying about it!"

"Oh, I can't stand it to think of the poor fish biting on a sharp hook in their mouths!" sobbed the pig. "If you could only make the hook soft in some way, so it wouldn't hurt!"

"Ha! That's an idea!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily. "I never thought, before, that a sharp hook might hurt the fish. I'm glad you spoke of it, Mr. Twistytail. Will you stop crying if I use a soft hook to catch my fish?"

"Yes," grunted the pig gentleman. "I will. Please use a soft hook—one made of molasses candy would be right, I think."

"Well, I haven't a molasses candy hook," laughed Uncle Wiggily. "But—ha! I know!" he suddenly cried as he looked at his feet. He was wearing rubbers to go fishing, for there had been a rain shower, this being the jolly month of April. "I know what I'll do" said the rabbit.

"What?" asked the pig gentleman, drying his tears on the edge of his coat sleeve.

"I'll cut a piece off my rubber and with it I'll cover the sharp point of the hook!" promised Uncle Wiggily. "Then I won't hurt the fish!"

"Oh, you are so kind!" murmured Mr. Twistytail as he waddled off to the five and six cent store to get his wife a new dress.

Whistling a merry little toodle-oodle tune, Uncle Wiggily hopped to the fishing stream. He sat down behind a bush and, taking out his knife, he cut a strip off the top edge of his rubber, where it was not needed. The rabbit gentleman was just going to wrap this soft piece of rubber around the sharp fish hook, which dangled on a long string tied on his pole, when, all of a sudden, there was a rustling in the bushes near the bunny and a harsh voice whispered: "I'll jump out first and grab him!"

"Yes!" growled another voice, "and then I'll jump out next and nibble his ears!" And, peering through the bushes, Uncle Wiggily saw the Fox and Wolf hiding there.

"Oh, ho!" softly laughed the rabbit. "I'll not use a soft fish hook on you! I'll use a sharp one without any rubber on the point!" And with that Mr. Longears flicked the line, with the hook on it, over the top of the bush. The sharp barb of the hook caught the Fox on the ear and pricked him. Then the rabbit flicked the hook again and pricked the Wolf.

"Wow!" howled the Fox, and "Wow!" howled the Wolf, and then they ran to the drug store to get some stickum plaster, not nibbling Uncle Wiggily at all. The rabbit gentleman made his hook very soft and caught forty-leven gold fish, which he took home for his forty-leven little rabbit children to watch as the fish swam around in the dish-pan. And the fish said it didn't hurt in the least to be caught as Uncle Wiggily caught them, with a rubber hook.

So it all happened for the best, you see, and if the umbrella doesn't try to hide in the milk bottle when it ought to be out playing in the rain, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the honey bear.

DO THIS AFTER SEVERE ILLNESS

How to Speedily Gain Strength and Put on Needed Weight

Nothing like the wonderful vitalizing vitamines extracted from the livers of the common codfish to help convalescing people to quickly get strong and well—everybody knows that.

So nowadays, medical men who keep up with times are ordering a tablet containing the vitamines that give to frail folks vigor, strength and weight—a tablet that is known as McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablet—and it surely has proved a blessing to thousands of people who have been sapped of their natural strength after any severe illness.

Skinny men and women take them to speedily put on plenty of good healthy solid flesh and for this purpose they are so extremely good that thin men and women often take on five pounds in 30 days. As a matter of fact, your druggist is authorized to return your money if you don't take on 5 pounds in 30 days.

Great for weak, skinny, backward, run-down children too, and gives them a hearty appetite.

Be sure and ask for McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Extract Tablet. Vancouver Drug Co., Mail Order Dept., Vancouver, Drug Co. and druggists everywhere have a big demand for them and millions are sold monthly all over North and South America. They are sugar coated and as easy to take as candy—60 Tablets—60 cents. (Advt.)

Relegation Holds Main Interest Now In English Soccer

Notts County, Burnley, Manchester City and Leeds in Danger of Going

Question Still Undecided as Result of Saturday's Games; Arsenal Smart

London, April 19 (Canadian Press Cable) — Considerably weakened by the contribution of their three outstanding players in the national cause that was beng fought out at Manchester on Saturday, Huddersfield Town, champions for the third season in succession in English Football League, succumbed at Highbury before their runnersup, when Arsenal defeated them by 3 to 1. The champions were without the services of Taylor, their goalkeeper; Goodall, their right back, who were playing for England, and of Jackson, their outside right, who was assisting Scotland.

Arsenal's team was minus Harper, their international custodian, who was defending the nets for Scotland. Arsenal played a keen game despite the fact that the result could have no effect on their position in the league. Hulme, Lawson and Parker registered goals for the winners, with Devlin, Huddersfield's recent acquisition from Cowdenbeath, responding for the champions.

Only two teams gathered in points away from home and of these the most important and most necessary win was that obtained at Leicester by Manchester City. The cup finalists dragged themselves a little farther off the danger zone of relegation by scoring three goals to Leicester's two. Browell accounted for one and Roberts for two of Manchester's goals and Leicester's comeback was from Hine and Chandler.

STILL UNDECIDED

Interest in the league battle has descended the scale from the top to the bottom. The question of the winner having been disposed of, the problem of which two teams will be demoted to the second division remains to be solved. In the running are Notts County, Burnley, Manchester City and Leeds United.

Notts County remained stationary as a result of their defeat at home by Cardiff City. Stansforth and Davies registered for Notts but Ferguson's three goals for the Welshmen, added to one scored by Keener, were too much to overcome.

Burnley gained a point by dividing the issue with Bury, each side obtaining two counters. But Burnley were unfortunate. They should have won but for the mistake of Heap, who assisted Bury by kicking the ball through his own goal. Should Burnley get relegated, it may not be too much to say that this disaster may be the cause.

Page, who scored six goals against Blackburn Rovers last Saturday, recorded one the day before yesterday, while Bury's one legitimate goal came from Bullock.

Leeds United also split the points, being played to a goalless draw by Birmingham.

In the second division, the three leaders, Wednesday, Derby County and Chelsea won their games, while the two tail-enders lost. One issue resulted from the contests in this division, and that was the definite relegation of Stockport County. They will go down to the third division as a result of their defeat yesterday at the hands of Darlington.

Whether Stoke or Fulham will accompany them is not yet decided but the chances are that it will be Stoke. Fulham added a precious point to their aggregate when they drew with Blackpool, while Stoke stayed in "As you were," succumbing to the pensioners.

Glasgow, April 19 (Canadian Press Cable)—The process of the survival of the fittest, had a certain culmination in league football Saturday when Dunfermline and Clyde of the Second Division, each won victories that enabled the mto step out of second string company, to be seen next season in the ranks of the First Division. Dunfermline became a certainty some time ago, but Clyde and Ayr United were fighting a close battle and the former has won out. Ayr have finished their season, their game against Bathgate being their last scheduled fixture. Their aggregate pointage is 52, represented by 20 wins, 12 draws and 6 defeats. Both Dunfermline and Clyde have one game to go, and with Dunfermline drawing with Albion Rovers, they have a total of 57 points, and Clyde's victory over Dumbarton gave them 53. At the other end of the table, Broxburn's demotion to the Third Division was sure several weeks ago, while Bathgate's sound handling from Ayr made their relegation also certain.

In the First Division Clydebank will return to the place whence they came at the opening of the season, their defeat, at the hands of Heart of Midlothian, Saturday extinguishing all their hopes, but it is not yet clear who will be demoted with them. Raith Rovers, St. Johnstone, and Dundee United each added one point on Saturday, and the drawn game that the Saints played with Dundee United, ended their football year. It left them with 28 points. With one game to go, Raith have 26, and Similarly with one game in hand, Dundee United has 28. The issue then is between St. Johnstone and Raith Rovers. Dundee United's goal average puts them out of danger.

TILLICUMS MEET

The Tillicums Cricket Club will meet to-night in the Tillicums' clubrooms, Broad Street, for the election of officers. All members and any others interested are invited to attend.

MANCHESTER CITY AND BOLTON PLAY FOR CUP APRIL 24

London, April 19—Two Lancashire soccer clubs will contest the final tie of the association challenge cup, the blue ribbon of English soccer, at the Wembley stadium, April 24. They are Manchester City and Bolton Wanderers, two of the oldest clubs in the country. It was expected that for the second successive year, Wales would have a representative in the final in Swanseatown, but they cut up rather badly before Bolton Wanderers in one of the semi-final rounds and lost by 3 to 0.

Australia Cricket Eleven Touched By Welcome In London

Team to Play Test Matches in England Given Boisterous Reception

Crowd Embarrassed Visitors, Some of Whom Were Unable to Speak

London, April 19 (Canadian Press Cable)The sixteen Australian cricketers who make up the team which is to tour England this Summer and engage in a number of test matches arrived at Victoria station last evening from Dover and were greeted by thousands of cricket enthusiasts who crowded the precincts of the station platforms.

Special barriers were erected and a large force of police were required to restrain the crowds who overwhelmed the visitors with a deafening cheer. Sir Joseph Cook, Australian high commissioner in London, and many prominent English cricketers, welcomed the visitors.

GREATLY TOUCHED

The Australians all agreed that a warmer greeting could not be given if the crowd had been welcoming home an English team. The unexpected exuberance of the crowd plainly embarrassed the visitors.

A. A. Mailey made the first dash from the saloon and cleared the way for his colleagues who followed. A. H. Richardson, conspicuous with his spectacles, towering above the rest.

The party proceeded to the Hotel Cecil, where L. H. Collins said that they were really overcome by the welcome at Victoria. He had never seen anything like it before. Some of the players were unable to speak, so touched were they.

Western Stars Are Sought By National Hockey League Men

Several Offers Have Been Made But Only One For Bill Cook Comes to Light

Montreal, April 19—According to prominent Western hockey men who are in Montreal in connection with the semi-annual meeting of the National Hockey League, several offers have been received from the Eastern organization for Western hockey players, including "Bill' Cook of the Saskatoon Sheiks. None of these offers could be entertained, however, it is said, by the Western men, because interleague regulation made it obligatory for clubs in either league to waive their rights before any individual player could be sold or traded outside his own league. It was further said by the same sources that there was little likelihood that "Bill" Cook would be traded or sold.

The meeting Saturday was conducted behind closed doors. There was considerable discussion throughout the day in the crowded lobby adjoining the conference room and the main interest centred chiefly around the probable chances of Chicago and Detroit to land berths for next season. Cleveland and Jersey City also have tentative applications by letter before the meeting Saturday. A committee was formed to look into the propositions.

WESTERNERS WATCHING

Outside the conference chamber was a rare assembly of hockey moguls, including Frank Patrick of Vancouver, "Newsy" Lalonde of Saskatoon and Kenny Mackenzie of Edmonton, Western Hockey League team owners, who were holding a watching brief and taking a close interest in developments.

Trade talk was in the air but the only two possibilities which crept to the open was New York's desire to land Howie Morenz from the Canadience—a questionable sale; and a bid by a National Hockey League Club for "Bill" Cook of Lalonde's Saskatoon Sheiks.

Baseball Meeting

A meeting of the Victoria Amateur Baseball League will be held to-morrow night at 8 o'clock in the Y.M.C.A. All clubs must have delegates at this meeting as it is of great importance.

Darcus and Price Lead Qualifying Round At Uplands

Price Finishes up With Best Round of Day, 78, and Catches up to Darcus

High Scores Registered in Club Championship; 186 Was Good Enough to Get in

By shooting a 37 on the last nine holes of the afternoon round R. J. Darcus gained a tie with A. V. Price for the medal honors in the qualifying round of the club championship of the Uplands Golf Club. They each took 162 strokes for the 36 holes, Darcus having a pair of 81's and Price making the morning round in 84 and the afternoon eighteen in 78.

Eighty-seven golfers played in the qualifying round and the thirty-two low scores entered the first round for the championship, which will be decided by match play.

Most of the scores were high, due to the drizzle in the morning which make the grips slippery and the greens very tricky. Every golfer had trouble with his putting.

ONE MAN IN "SEVENTIES"

Price was the only man to break the "seventies." He had a seventy-eight in the afternoon and this enabled him to join Darcus in topping the field. Price was a little off his game in the morning and turned in the third low score, 84. John Savident's 82 was the second best to Darcus' 81 in the first 18 holes. Savident proved his consistency by registering another 82 in the afternoon and this gave him a total of 164 for the two rounds, two points behind Price and Darcus.

The draw for the first round will be made shortly.

NOISY WELCOME IS TENDERED GRADS ON REACHING HOME

Edmonton, April 19—Exploding of 30,000 firecrackers, booming of skyrockets, bands playing, thousands of wildly-cheering citizens and an automobile parade—such were some of the events that announced the triumphal entry of the Commercial Graduates, champion girls' basketball team of Canada, into their home city at 11.15 o'clock last night.

The welcome extended was one of the most spectacular in the history of the city. Although the team returned minus the international championship, the Edmonton girls made a most remarkable record on their eastern tour, playing ten games in thirteen days and winning six of them.

The Grads who defeated Winnipeg, Chicago and Warren, then lost the international title to Cleveland by eight points in four games, won the Canadian championship by defeating Toronto Lakesides by sixteen points and defeated London in an exhibition game.

Veterans Will Replay With Vancouver Team

Soccer Teams Battled to 3-3 Draw at Royal Athletic Park on Saturday; Fans Witness One of Finest Exhibitions of Season; Mainland Team Comes From Behind in Second Period and Ties Up Game; Thirty Minutes' Overtime Gives One Goal Each

Over 1,300 spectators watched the Victoria Veterans and South Hill of Vancouver battle furiously for two hours in the semi-final of the British Columbia football series at the Royal Athletic Park on Saturday afternoon. It was one of the finest and closest exhibitions of soccer seen here this year and kept the large crowd on their toes throughout, although a drizzle of rain served to slightly dampen their ardor during the second half.

With a two-goal lead and the game practically tucked away near the end of the second half, the Veterans faltered for just a few minutes. But it was enough for the aggressive Vancouver aggregation, which stepped into the opening and registered two tallies in quick succession, tying up the game and forcing overtime. The overtime session was bitterly fought by both contingents. Victoria's hopes of entering the finals looked pretty black when Henkel sagged the hemp for Vancouver soon after the period had started, putting them in the lead for the first time during the game. Phillips set the local fans in a state of ecstasy, however, when he lobbed the leather into the Vancouver net just seven minutes later, putting the Veterans on equal terms with their opponents and settling the final score. The game will be replayed in Vancouver.

REAL STRENGTH

The Veterans gave local soccer followers an excellent display of their real strength and certainly deserve credit for holding such a powerful aggregation as the South Hill team to a draw. Had they won they would have put Victoria in the finals for the championship of the Province. Perhaps they will do even better when they take the Mainland crew on again on the other side of the gulf.

Clarkson, battle-scarred veteran of many a soccer tussle, showed his opponents a number of tricks and proved just what a veteran can do. He made the openings for the Veterans' first two goals, his centre from left wing, a play for which he is becoming famous, dropping into the goal-mouth nearly every time. Cameron snaffled one of these and booted in for Victoria's first tally and Mirfield took another and headed it in for the second, giving the locals a comfortable lead. McCormick, another veteran, also did well at the centre half position.

FINE RECOVERY

Vancouver gave a brilliant exhibition of recovery. Things were looking nasty in the South Hill camp towards the close of the game, with the Vets holding tight to a two-goal advantage. But they did not despair. Brilliant rushes featured their play, and they checked the locals almost to a standstill for a few minutes. Their play was of the first order and it produced the scores. Woolridge gathered in the first goal and was closely followed by Enefer with another, setting the teams in a deadlock.

THE PLAY

South Hill won the toss and elected to play with the wind. They started with a rush and forced a corner right away. Back came the Vets to the attack and Lavery, in goal for the visitors, had a busy session of it. Smith's snorter nearly fooled him but he fisted it out just in time. Stewart of Vancouver then took a potshot at Bridges but was over the bar. Ding-dong play was the order for some time with the Vancouverites having somewhat the better of the exchanges. Bridges the local goaltender, managed to take care of everything that came his way and Lavery did likewise.

Cameron, inside right for the locals sustained a blow in the stomach about half way through the period and was taken off the field for treatment. He came right back and received an ovation from the grandstand. Bridges was called upon to take a high one from Henkel at this juncture and just got the leather as it was headed for the top of the net. Phillips, the Vets outside right showed up well and let go a couple of fast ones at Lavery, but could not score.

THE OPENING GOAL

Cameron's goal came about thirty minutes after the start. He took Clarkson's centre near the goal-mouth and gave Lavery no chance to save. Mirfield pulled a fine one on the fans just after. He accepted Phillip's pass in the centre and was going through. To pass an opposing back he handled the ball and before the whistle had blown, scored. It looked like two for the locals, but the foul was called. The Mainland crew seemed intent on evening things up before the halfway mark and pressed the Vets defence hard. Good kicking by Campbell and Meredith kept them out till the end of the period however and the locals were in the lead by a single goal as the whistle blew for the interval.

AGGRESSIVE

The visitors were the aggressors as the second half opened and Stewart's drive was only blocked in time to prevent a score. Campbell followed up with a foul kick but McCormick was in the way and cleared. 'Mac" pursued the advantage and sent in a long drive at Lavery which was stopped. Mirfield came along and did his stuff at this stage. Clarkson sent in one of his centres from left wing and Mirfield nearly scored with his head for a bit and the ball found a resting place in the net. Enefer, the visitors' speedy left wing, found himself in possession a number of times but could not work the ball into the centre quick enough to get a score. A wild scrimmage in the Vancouver goal looked good for another tally for the locals, but when the players were finally hauled from the ball it was outside the line. A similar mix-up in the Victoria goal a few minutes later produced the Mainlanders' first tally. Woolridge was the lucky man. Getting his toe to the ball in fine style he had Bridges helpless. Enefer came along from the kick-off and accepting a pass in the goal-mouth, sagged the hemp for South Hill's second goal in three minutes. Woolridge broke away while the visitors were pressing hard and Bridges was forced to come out twenty yards from his citadel to scoop the leather away from the centre forward.

The teams fought every inch of the way for the deciding goal. Long shots were rained at either end but they were of no avail and the full-time whistle blew with the teams tied.

VISITORS LEAD

Local fans were just about ready to give up hope as the overtime period started. Henkel was the one who poured water on their spirits. He headed in a pass for the visitors third tally right after the overtime got under way. Bridges was at his best following that goal and although called upon to take numerous shots he was impregnable and let none go by. A foul kick just outside the visitors penalty area was instrumental in securing the Veterans' third and tying goal. McCormick took the place kick. Phillips accepted his pass and with one of the prettiest lobs seen her for some time put the leather between the uprights for the final score. Shots rained in from the visitors' boots with continuous monotony toward the close of the period but Bridges was unbeatable. The Vets forwards too were by no means idle and gave Lavery plenty to think about. Victoria's hopes were raised to fever heat just before the finish. McCormick took a foul kick near the visitors goal and all were ready for something to happen. It failed to materialize however and the game ended with the score at 3-3.

Henkel, Enefer, Campbell, Bloom and Woolridge turned in some fine football for the visitors while Clarkson, McCormick, Mirfield, Cameron and Phillips starred for the Veterans.

McDonald of Ladysmith ably refereed the tussle with Alcock and Stokes on the side lines.

The teams were:

South Hill—Lavery; Campbell and Porter; Lakie, Teasdale and McSween; Bloom, Stewart, Woolridge Henkel and Enefer.

Victoria Veterans—Bridges; Campbell and Meredith; Preston, McCormick and Smith; Phillips, Cameron, Mirfield, Bowman and Clarkson.

Saanich Thistles Fail To Make The Grade In Vancouver

Local Junior Champs go Down by Two to Nil Before St. Paul's

After an unsuccessful journey to the mainland in quest of semi-final honors in the provincial junior soccer cup, the Saanich Thistles returned to the city yesterday. They were defeated by St. Paul's eleven of Vancouver by a 2 to 0 score, thus receiving a knockout blow to their championship hopes. However, the boys put up a strong fight and made the Vancouver crew fight all the way for their win.

Both goals were scored in the first session of the game. Bunyan, the mainlanders' centre-half, took a pass from a perfect corner kick by Ballantyne and slammed the ball into the net for the first tally. Burns, the local centre-forward, came within an ace of scoring a few minutes later but missed by inches. The goal, which put the game on ice for Vancouver, came from a penalty kick after Kennedy had handled the ball. Another Kennedy, the mainland full-back, took the kick and scored.

Play in the second half was with the Thistles most of the time but they could not find the net. Box, the mainland net custodian, was on the job always and, with the aid of a few horseshoes, kept everything away from his citadel.

The teams were as follows:

Thistles—Rose; Kennedy and Price; Gandy and Kelman; Campbell, Minnis, Burns, Irvings and Smith.

St. Paul's—Box; Noble and Kennedy; Hutchison, Bunyan and Salters; Stephen, Scott, Cumming Hunter and Ballantyne.

One sequel to the case will be of a private and somewhat painful nature, it is understood, taking place in the woodshed in the rear of the boy's home.

The city will take no action in regard to the treatment of those held for mental observation at the city police station, it is stated to-day by Mayor Pendray. This is because the whole matter is the subject of regulations promulgated by Provincial and Federal authorities, and in which the city has no part, other than to comply. The city has been asked to sanction a change in the present method by the creation of special provision at the Jubilee Hospital, and the elimination of treatment at the city cells. The question is beyond its jurisdiction, is the stand taken by Mayor Pendray, and he will so advise the council.

Mrs. A. Hallam, the retiring president of the Burnside Ladies' Lawn Bowling Club was the hostess at the final card party of the Burnside Bowling Club on Saturday evening. Huddlestone and Mr. Goodwin tied for the second prize, and a "cut" being made, Mr. Huddlestone took the prize; third, George Vallance. At the conclusion refreshments were served by Mrs. Hallam, who also donated the prizes.

NEW REBATE TO APPLY ONLY TO BRITISH SUGAR

Growers Must Bring Supplies From British Territory to Get Hold-back

The new customs drawback on sugar used in the manufacture of loganberry wine here will apply only when the sugar is brought from a British country. This is made clear in a telegram received by Attorney-General Manson to-day from Hon. George H. Boivin, Minister of Customs, following an announcement on the matter in the Budget Speech fo Hon. J. A. Robb, Minister of Finance.

Loganberry wine production in British Columbia during the last three or four years has come to be a very important industry. The wine producers have felt that they were under a distinct handicap in competition with the wine producers in Ontario through the fact that grape wine producers, as a result of a customs regulation of some years ago, are entitled to draw back or refund of ninety-nine per cent. of the duty paid on raw sugar imported into Canada from a British country and used in the production of grape wine.

The wine producers of British Columbia and the British Columbia division of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association urged strongly upon the Federal Government that the wine producers of British Columbia should be put upon a parity. Their representations had the active endorsement of Attorney-General Manson and all concerned are gratified to know that the Federal Government has acceded to the request from this Province.

British Columbia loganberry wine has proved increasingly popular, and the extra British Columbia market for it has been growing with considerable rapidity. The reduction in the cost of production as a result of the sugar duty drawback will enable it to compete with other wines still more effectively.

DISPUTES VALIDITY OF PACIFIC COAL COMPANY MEETINGS

No Quorum Says Arbuthnot's Counsel When Assignment Made

John R. Green Seeks to Offer New Phases in Prolonged Legal Battle

A new phase to lengthy litigation involving John Arbuthnot and the Pacific Coast Coal Mines Limited was opened in Supreme Court Chambers before Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald this morning through an application by John R. Green to set aside the assignment in bankruptcy of the company in October 1921 to W. E. Hodges, assignee of Vancouver. K. W. Macrae, Vancouver, opposed the application.

The validity of meetings of directors of the Pacific Coast Coal Mines Limited was attacked by Mr. Green on the grounds that the articles of association provided there should be eleven directors present at meetings held between 1916 and 1921 whereas, he claimed, there were only seven directors present.

There was authority, he said, for his claim that a company could not carry on without a full board. An extraordinary general meeting would have to be called to authorize the reduction of the board. There was no record, he said, of such a meeting but extraordinary general meetings were held in 1911 increasing the directors' board from seven to nine and another meeting the same year increasing the board from nine to eleven.

Facts which have since come to light, Mr. Green contended, might have caused a different judgment to be handed down by the Court of Appeal and the Privy Council on some points.

Mr. Arbuthnot, he said, had located plaintiff Thompson, against whom he had a personal judgment of $200,000, in Los Angeles. He proved to be a clergyman and told Mr. Arbuthnot he had never allowed his name to be used as a plaintiff in the litigation.

Four defendants named in the proceedings, he claimed, were acting in collusion and had permitted their names to be put forward by counsel for plaintiff who acted for them.

GAVE MORTGAGE

In 1918, after Mr. Justice Clement gave judgment for $74,000 against Arbuthnot, and Arbuthnot had appealed to the Court of Appeal, a mortgage was put through by the Pacific Coast Coal Mines Limited to the Coast Collieries Company for $1,976,000. It was, Mr. Green claimed, put through to defeat an anticipated judgment. Everything practically went to the Collieries company.

As a matter of law, he claimed, the assignment of the Pacific Coast Coal Mines Limited was not valid and the creditors had their full rights.

Referring to directors' meetings Mr. Green claimed that Arbuthnot, whose name at one time was struck from the shareholders' register and later restored, had received no notice of meetings which he had been entitled to attend. Had he received notice he would have known what was going on when the mortgage was put through after he had received judgment. There was good reason, then, said Mr. Green, for some shareholders not being notified, as they would have stopped the mortgage going through.

PROTESTS MEETINGS

Regarding the assignment made by the company Mr. Green said directors could not convey the property of the company in this manner without calling a meeting of the shareholders.

Under the Bankruptcy Act His Lordship remarked a company did not convey its property away; it merely placed it in trust.

The meeting of the company when the assignment was made was protested by Mr. Green on the ground that a paid secretary could not be a director, and the secretary of the company had acted in that capacity on this occasion.

If that were so the last meeting of the directors when the assignment was made went by the board, as there was not a quorum.

A further objection to the meeting was that there was no resolution of the directors authorizing it to be called.

FORD ANNOUNCES NEW LOW PRICES ON TARIFF CUTS

New low prices as the result of the cuts in the Canadian customs tariff were announced to-day by the Ford Motor Company of Canada, through O. H. Bell, sales manager of the National Motor Company here. The new schedule of prices appears in the advertising columns.

"The Ford Company of Canada is a 100 per cent. Canadian production," Mr. Bell said. "The last train of sixty-one cars loaded with Fords that arrived from the Canadian factory to be distributed in British Columbia measured one-half mile long and paid freight charges of $32,859 to Canadian railroads.

"The Ford Company of Canada has over 7,000 employees in its factory at Ford, Ont.

"The Ford Company of Canada on its export trade has paid $94,000,000 in the last ten years," said Mr. Bell. "This has been a big item in Canadian prosperity."

Popular Education To Save Forests Is Government's Plan

R. V. Stuart Tells Gyros of Great Need of Protection For Province's Timber

"It is only by popular education that we can eliminate in the minds of the general public the old belief that our forests are of no particular value," declared R. V. Stuart, of the Provincial Forestry Department, in the course of an address before the Gyro Club to-day.

Mr. Stuart spoke in connection with the "Save the Forest Week" programme. He stated that of the original estimate of one thousand billion feet of lumber in this province but thirty-five per cent remained. Sixty per cent had been destroyed by fire and the other five per cent had been cut, said Mr. Stuart.

"The day has passed when our timber meant nothing to us," remarked Mr. Stuart. "Forty-two thousand men are now employed in the timber industry and $80,000,000 is the total production each year. It is now our largest industry and the provincial exchequer reaps $3,500,000 each year from it. To perpetuate this great industry all we need to do is to protect it from fire."

Season hazards, topography, cover and the human element were the main causes of forest fires said Mr. Stuart. Campers cause the greatest damage, while railways, since the introduction of fuel oil, have ceased to figure as a hazard and logging operations account for but five per cent of the fires.

"The camper is a tough proposition to deal with," commented Mr. Stuart "Through education, however, we hope to change his habits."

President Leighton, of the Victoria Gardeners Association, asked the support of the Gyros in the effort to establish a large garden in this city for rock plants.

Archie Wills vice-president of the club, reviewed the recent world's hockey series for the benefit of the Gyros and told of some of humorous incidents that occurred when the Cougars met Montreal two weeks ago.

NEW ROLE FOR NORMA TALMADGE IN "KIKI"

Capitol Screen Feature Is an Elaboration of David Belasco Stage Success; Two Orchestras Augment Popular Show This Week.

The Capitol Theatre's current attraction will give photoplay-goers what is predicted as the biggest surprise of the year. Screendom's most famous dramatic actress has turned comedienne and will open a week's engagement

Norma Talmadge is the star, and her latest picture is "Kiki," an elaborate cinema version of the David Belasco stage success. Entirely different from any role she ever portrayed on the screen during her long career, "Kiki" is said to afford Miss Talmadge an ideal vehicle.

The Princess Yetive of Graustark has changed into a Paris street gamin —a ragged, short-skirted miss who lives by her wits and bewitching ways. Her adventures carry into theatrical life and into the homes of the rich.

She winds up by—well, she finally realizes her ambition to be a "great lady."

Miss Talmadge's supporting cast reveals many distinguished screen names—Ronald Colman, Gertrude Astor, Mare McDermott, George K. Arthur, William Orlamond, Erwin Connelly, Frankie Darro and Mack Swain. In addition to Norma Talmadge in "Kiki," the Capitol Theatre will present the famous Moanalona String Quartette, a Hawaiian native orchestra in a programme of melody and dances. Tex Howard and his princess orchestra will again delight Capitol audiences with another superb repertoire of dance melodies.

"A Perfect Lady" Snappy Production Now at Coliseum

Romantic Comedy is Staged by Ed. Redmond as Amusement Vehicle

"A Perfect Lady" is the play occupying the stage at the Coliseum for the week commencing to-day. The heroine is a perfect lady, but at one time she is not so referred to by her adopted son.

In fact, this romantic comedy was first produced in New York under the title of "The Ruined Lady," with Grace George, who is perhaps the finest comedian of the North American continent in the role of "Ann." Ann is a delightful character, sincere and sweetly daring, and she braves all and risks her reputation to save a fading romance and with it her own happiness and another's.

"A Perfect Lady" will be found to be one of the peppiest comedies staged at the Government Street Theatre, and there are situations which vie with anything in the hilarious acts of some of the very snappy shows that have been produced at the Coliseum. This comedy has been a big drawing card wherever produced and its high entertaining qualities include an unusual love story, with a very human woman, who had given a number of the best years of her life to the service of others, fighting for her happiness.

This week changes in the personnel of the Coliseum cast include the return to the company of Eileen Allwood, who plays a chorus girl.

THE "BAT"

The production of "The Bat," which is advertised for April 26, is a theatrical event around which a great deal of interest centres. With an augmented company this production will be put on under Ed. Redmond's direction, with a careful duplication of all the finer points which made this sensational melodrama the rage of London and New York.

Added Attraction At Dominion Show

This week the management of the Dominion Theatre is presenting in addition to the regular feature pictures, "The Princess Marguerite Orchestra" under the leadership of Jack Findler. This aggregation of musicians will be heard in a programme of novelty numbers and popular dance melodies, including such well known favorites as "Indian Dawn," "Mikado" (a rythmic classic), "In Your Green Hat," "The Prisoner's Song" (waltz), "Don't Wake Me Up" and "Who" (novelty fox trot).

This is undoubtedly one of the best musical organizations that have ever appeared at the Dominion Theatre. This is the first public appearance here prior to leaving the city on an extended tour.

"My wife's people are driving me to distraction. They find fault with everything I do. In fact, there's only one thing about me they admire."

"And what's that?"

"My choice of a wife."

"Polly of Follies" Delectable Stage Hit at Playhouse

"The Girl From Montmartre" Attractive Screen Feature

Dancing novelties and musical hits feature "Polly of the Follies," the stage production which the Hincks players will offer patrons at the Playhouse Theatre this week, commencing to-night. The show is bright and snappy from beginning to end.

On the screen is "The Girl From Montmartre," depicting daring romance and drama. This is the last picture in which Barbara La Marr took part before her death.

The plot of "Polly of the Follies" is laid in an old fashioned cafe, owned by Uncle Hoppy. Betty is the assistant manager and cashier of the restaurant, while Polly is a girl who has had previous experience on the stage. Things at the cafe are going from bad to worse, owing to lack of patronage. Horace, a nephew of Uncle Hoppy, induces a friend, Oscar Hammerswine by name, to visit the place, and hopes he will purchase the establishment.

Upon hearing of the visit of the prospective buyer of the cafe, Betty hits on the happy idea of arranging a cabaret entertainment for Mr. Hammerswine. This is put on, and goes over capably, particularly with the aid of Polly of the Follies. Hammerswine is greatly impressed with Polly's performance, but learns he cannot obtain her services without buying the cafe.

How Oscar finally parts with $30,000 before the restaurant becomes his property is delightfully shown at the Playhouse this week.

The Playhouse players will be assisted this week by two new stars, Doris Stark and Peggy Sullivan.

Crook Drama is New Offering at Columbia To-day

"Three Wise Crooks" Presents Contrast in Melodrama and Comedy

Imbued with charming contrast, some truly powerful moments of melodrama, and the most amusing comedy relief ever seen in a crook drama, "Three Wise Crooks," Evelyn Brent's most recent production for F.B.O. comes to the Columbia Theatre to-day for a three-day engagement. John Brownell and Fred Myton wrote the story and it fits the star like the proverbial glove; which is only natural since they intended it for Miss Brent exclusively. It is as full of reality as an earthquake, and as soothing as a visit to the old home town. The plot revolves about the transplanting of the title parts, including Dolly Duvane (Miss Brent) from their swift and not too lawful pace in a large city to the quiet sweetness of a little country community, where everything from the new mown hay to the cow which would not "sit down on a pail" to be milked causes the "city slickers" amazement. Eventually their scorn turns to admiration, and largely through the instrumentality of a charming little old lady that Dolly has befriended, they are restored to the good graces of society. This brief outline gives but a poor idea of the charm and thrill with which the story is invested, and Director F. Harmon Weight has caught it on the screen brilliantly.

Petrova Fails to Win Damage Suit

New York, April 19—The suit of Olga Petrova, the actress, against William Henry Roberts, a London author, for $100,000 damages for slanderous remarks accredited to him in connection with a plagiarism suit against the actress was dismissed in the appellate division of the Supreme Court of New York state. The court reversed a decision of Justice Reigelmann, which held the service of summons and complaint against Roberts had been properly made.

Roberts claimed the service was not proper because it had been made while he was attending court in the trial of his successful suit charking Miss Petrova with plagiarizing material from his "La Rubia" for her play, "The White Peacock."

FAVORITE OF ENGLISH STAGE IN NEW PICTURE

Doris Lloyd Cast in Tod Browning's Thriller, "The Blackbird," Which Is Showing All Week at the Dominion Theatre.

Doris Lloyd, one of the favorites of the English stage, came to this continent about two years ago.

She had become a sensation in a play in London that had run for a term of years, and then it seemed impossible to find another that struck the fancy of the Londoners. It fact she appeared in five plays in succession that had run but a few weeks each.

She decided that the one thing to do was to come to America, and although there have been times when she felt that she had made a mistake, she is now gaining a foothold in the motion picture industry and on the Western stage.

Tod Browning sent for her when she was in San Francisco to play the part of an English music hall soubrette in his production of "The Black Bird," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture which is playing at the Dominion Theatre, with Lon Chaney in the starring role.

The music hall, according to Miss Lloyd, is an exact reproduction of one of London's most notorious old variety houses, located in Limehouse, and called "The Queen's."

The part is one of an old favorite, rather passe, but one who is always a success with her public, no matter what she does. Miss Lloyd declares she has never played a part that she has so thoroughly enjoyed, and that Browning and Waldemar Young, the director and scenarist, have recreated the atmosphere of Limehouse as perfectly as is possible.

Renee Adoree plays the principal feminine role, while Owen Moore, Andy McLennan, William Weston, Eric Mayne, Sidney Bracy, Ernie S. Adams, and Polly Moran complete the cast. The story is an original by Browning.

COMPANY HELD BLAMELESS IN SUPREME RULING

Suggestion of Fraud Raised Over Insurance Deal Discountenanced by Court

Vancouver, April 19.—Judgment for $12,812 was awarded Queen Insurance Company of America against British Traders Insurance Company Limited by Mr. Justice D. A. Macdonald on a contract for reinsurance in Supreme Court Friday. The litigation arose out of damage by fire on the night of July 31 last to the plant at 281 Central Street, Vancouver, of National Canners Limited.

Mr. Justice McDonald pointed out that on the morning of July 31 National Canners Limited was insured with Queen Insurance Company for $67,500 against loss from fire; and of this sum, the insurance company had reinsured with California Insurance Company for $25,000. On the evening of July 31, stated his lordship, the accountant for National Canners arranged with the agents of Queen Insurance Company for $20,000 additional fire insurance on stock in trade. The fire occurred the same night, and Rithet Consolidated Limited, the Queen Insurance Company's agents for the province, admitted liability on this policy, which was written on August 3 and dated July 31. After paying $12,864 under the policy in question to National Canners for their loss, the Queen Insurance Company claimed a refund from British Traders Insurance Company under a contract of reinsurance.

In its defence, British Traders Insurance Company pleaded that Rithet Consolidated Limited and certain persons had been guilty of fraud and that the Rithet company intended to assist National Canners by admitting liability on behalf of Queen Insurance Company, and for the purpose of foisting the loss on defendant.

EXONERATES COMPANY

"This is a very serious charge to be spread upon a record as against business men who as far as I can judge from their conduct in the witness box are men of high standing and of undoubted integrity, and I think it is due these men to say that there is not one tittle of evidence to throw even the slightest suspicion upon the honesty of anything they did throughout the whole transaction," said Mr. Justic McDonald.

His Lordship stated that the Queen Insurance Company did the honest thing by paying the loss, and the question for the court to decide was whether the company had a contract with British Traders Insurance Company for reinsurance to the total of $15,000 against the loss. Of the $20,000 policy in question, reinsurance had been placed for $5,000 with the Pacific Coast Fire Insurance Company, which paid the loss without demur, pointed out the judge.

His Lordship concluded that there was a contract for reinsurance with British Traders Insurance Company and awarded plaintiff judgment accordingly. He dismissed a counterclaim of defendant for damages.

E. P. Davis, K.C., and Mr. Ghent Davis were counsel for Queen Insurance Company, and E. C. Mayers for defendant.

IRISH ARE TARDY IN NAMING QUEEN

Sons of Erin Have Not Yet Made Choice For May Queen Contest

Campaign Manager Suggests Lady of Ireland Volunteer

In spite of the fact that it is claimed there are enough Irish in Victoria to elect a queen with flying colors no candidate has yet been named to represent Erin in the Maytime queen contest.

Canada, England, Wales and Scotland will be represented. Early in the campaign the Scots announced Miss Bessie Wallace as a candidate and every Scottish society in the city assured her of their loyal support.

The same unanimity is certain for any representative of the land of the shamrock, but as no organization has taken the initiative Harold Stevenson, queen contest manager, makes a request that a lady of Ireland volunteer. Once an Irish candidate is in the race supporters and a manager will immediately be secured, he says.

Mexicans Watching Arms Shipments

Vera Cruz, April 19—Following the departure from here southward of a Mexican cruiser and four gunboats, the Government has maintained silence as to their mission, but the general belief is they have been dispatched to patrol the coast near the Island of Cozumel, off the state of Quintana Roo, as there have been rumors of a shipment of arms from Cuba for a band of revolutionists.

Havana, April 19—Rumors that a shipment of arms and ammunition had been made from Matanzas to Mexico and rumors of a Mexican revolutionary junta last month brought prompt government investigation, after which General Guadalupe Sanchez (who was head of the de la Huerta revolution in Mexico), left Havana from Santiago de Cuba, en route to Santo Domingo.

General Sanchez, said a telegram to the Initerior Department from the governor of Oriente province, disappeared from Santiago de Cuba and officials have been unable to trace his movements. A day or two before his disappearance, General Sanchez was quoted in newspaper dispatches received here from Santiago as saying the Cuban Government asked him to leave the country, "on account of revolutionary activities against a friendly nation." He denied an yconnection with such acts.

COURT RULES IN FAVOR OF VESSEL

Seattle Lumber Company Loses Suit For Damages From Str. Hanna Nielson

Vancouver, April 19.—Interrogatory as to the custom of vessels engaged in trading between Puget Sound and Europe touching at ports on the west coast of the United States, and for the purpose of loading cargo, and at ports in Europe for discharging purposes, has been allowed by Mr. Justice Martin in the Admiralty Court, despite objections of Heidner and Company, Seattle, plaintiffs in a damage action against the Norwegian ship, Hanna Nielson.

Approximately $4,000 is claimed by the company as damages for alleged injury to a spruce cargo, shipped on the Hanna Nielson at Tacoma in February, 1925, and discharged at Liverpool in May.

The damage was alleged to have been caused by dampness, fungus rendering the lumber unfit for the construction of airplanes.

Breach of contract is pleaded, plaintiffs alleging that the vessel deviated from the voyage contemplated in the bill of lading, by a call at Portland, at a port in Holland and at Hamburg before proceeding to Liverpool.

The interrogatory arose as a result of the plea of diffendant that such calls were customary. Mr. Justice Martin ruling that it was both reasonable and just that such question should be allowed.

WAR PREVENTED VISIT TO PEKING

Dr. L. Michaelis, Here To-day, Unable to Deliver Lectures at Rockefeller Foundation

Owing to the war in China, Dr. L. Michaelis, professor of bio-chemistry, University of Berlin, was unable to reach Peking to deliver a series of lectures before the Rockefeller Foundation medical college.

He was prevented from visiting the Chinese capital by the suspension of transportation to the interior by the warring factions. Peking, he said, was virtually isolated, as considerable sections of the railway had been torn up by the raiders.

The professor arrived here on the liner Empress of Russia today from Japan after opening a new medical laboratory at Nagoya.

Dr. Michaelis stated that the institution at Nagoya had been elevated from an ordinary medical school to a modern college equipped with all the facilities known to science.

Up to the end of 1922, Professor Michaelis had been an invitation lecturer at universities and colleges in the United States and he is now returning from Japan to join the Johns Hopkins University at Baltimore.

Japanese Stowaway Taken Off Empress Steamship To-day

When the liner Empress of Russia docked this morning from the Orient, Tanaka Shinkichi, a Japanese stowaway, was turned over to the local immigration authorities. The Oriental, twenty-eight years of age, boarded the Russia at Yokohama and was discovered after the liner had been to sea for several days.

When questioned to-day the Oriental stated that he had been accidentally carried away on the vessel. He is a laborer and has worked for considerable time in Shanghai.

When the Empress of Russia sails for the Orient on May 1 the stowaway will be returned to his native land, and until that date he will be detained at the immigration building.

The time used is Pacific standard, for the 120th meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

Wall Street TO-DAY

Last Minute News on Stocks and Financial Affairs

New York, April 19 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—Mixed movements were featured in the dealings to-day, and though money rates were easier, and the general list gave indications early of a good recovery in progress, various news factors were uncovered which turned the market in a downward course, though at time there was evidence of a much improved tone, especially following Judge Gary's remarks which hinted at the possibility of a stock dividend at some future time, but he also asserted that such a distribution could not be safely made at this time.

The late developments marketwise showed stocks in freer supply, especially after the report that Senator Walsh proposed a resolution which directed the federal trade commission to make inquiry into recent industrial and other combinations and in the late selling many issues touched the day's low levels.

There seems to be an element of uncertainty over the progress of near future business, following reports of a let down in the motor industry, however, other barometers of business such as car loadings show encouraging figures, and it seems as though the more uncertain aspects of the situation have been fairly well discounted.

New York, April 19 (By B. C. Bond Corporation's direct Wall Street wire)—The Wall Street Journal's stock market edition this afternoon says: Stocks showed no disposition in the opening session of the week to break away from the narrow range in which they recently have been fluctuating.

Several attempts were made to rally the general list by running in the shorts in General Electric, General Motors and other speculative leaders. However, these efforts were checked by the cold water thrown by Judge Gary, at the annual meeting of the Steel Corporation, on the hopes of some immediate increase in the return to common shareholders, and by the action of Hudson Motor Company in cutting down its daily production to 900 cars from 1,500 on account of unfavorable weather conditions.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, April 19 (By R. P. Clark Co.)—Wheat—New highs on the movement were reached on buying of general character. Advance, which was regarded as attained too rapidly, encountered heavy profit-taking sales and gains were more than lost in the last hour. However, there was evidence of timely buying on the weak spots and prices recovered with ease at times. Export sales for the day were not large, but the news from Winnipeg indicated that all overnight offers had been accepted.

Chicago, April 19 (By B. C. Bond Corporation's direct pit wire)—Market was a broad affair with an early bulge to a new high on the present movement. July up ten cents from the low of last week. The bulge brought in heavy profit-taking sales and a reaction followed with some pressure from houses with Eastern connections developing on the way down. There was nothing in the general run of the news to account for the selling but the trade was less friendly to the buying side on the belief that the upturn had been too rapid to hold, the break which followed was regarded as only natural.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

Winnipeg, April 19.—The wheat market to-day after an early gain of 1¾, was under heavy realizing pressure, with a resultant loss in quotations, which at the close ranged from 1 cent to 1½ cents lower. May 158⅜; July 156⅛; and October 135⅞.

Active trading was recorded shortly after the opening, and the May future reached 161⅜, marking a new high. Exporters were fairly active, and the speculative buying appeared to be broadening.

Export trade, however, had requirements satisfied quickly, and with heavy selling by local interests, the market fell away and there was little to hold prices on the bulges.

Coarse grains were firm in spite of the decline in wheat, while the cash grain trade was confined to a carlot basis.

Winnipeg, April 19 (By R. P. Clark and Company).—Wheat: The market displayed early strength, with prices reaching ¾ cent above the close Saturday, but the buying power dwindled away and heavy realizing sales continued, and the market suffered a good decline, closing around the bottom and showing a loss of 1¼ cents to 1½ for May and July respectively. The market was very active around the opening, with exporters and commission houses fair buyers, but export business was not large and soon became satisfied. New York estimated sales of around 300,000 bushels, partly durums, the small business being attributed to the light offerings over the week from this side to Europe.

Winnipeg, April 19 (By B. C. Bond Corporation's direct pit wire)—After making new high for the present upturn, wheat experienced a natural reaction due to heavy profit taking. Export business was disappointing only 200,000 being reported. The American visible showed a healthy decrease of 1,826,000. It is anticipated that the opening of navigation will see a large movement of durum wheat which should be reflected in further sharp decreases in their visibles.

World shipments continue light being only 10,357,000 against 12,225,000 last week. Reports from Canadian west indicate fine weather everywhere seeding becoming general in many districts. Precipitation during past six months was only half that of a year ago and normal rains will be need as soon as seeding is completed.

The YELLOW STUB

by Ernest Lynn

COPYRIGHT 1926 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

Jimmy sat for a long time after O'Day's departure, his knees hunched up before him on the bed, a frown wrinkling his forehead. Then he jumped up, took some writing paper from a drawer and wrote a letter to Barry Colvin.

He wrote page after page, describing in full the events of that exciting evening. "And not a word to the family, Barry," he wrote. "You know what they'd say if they found out. You might, however, say something to Detective Mooney if you get the chance. He was one who said we were fools to believe Olga Maynard's story. This might give him a new slant."

The long, low sport-model roadster belonging to Mr. Samuel Church came silently to a stop in front of the modest looking apartment building and Mr. Church stepped out. In the vestibule of the apartment he rang the bell opposite the name Lowell.

Mrs. Lowell's welcome was radiant. "Good evening, Mr. Church." She stepped to one side as he came in the door. "Let me take your hat, and your coat—Mary has not finished dressing yet and you wont' want to sit indoors with your overcoat on. One takes cold so easily as it is. I told Mary to hurry. I hope she won't make you late for the concert."

"Thank you. We have plenty of time." His manner was easy, and assured as he handed her his hat and removed his loose-fitting black coat. He stood immaculate in his dinner clothes, his wavy, grey-tinged black hair sleek with pomade.

He drew a silver bound leather cigar case from his pocket as Mrs. Lowell returned from hanging up his coat and hat. "Mind if I smoke?" he smiled.

"Of course not, Mr. Church. I'd rather you would, in fact. I like to see men smoke—especially cigars," she said as he finished lighting his. "It is so masculine and Mr. Lowell used to be so fond of them—but please sit down. Shall I tell Mary to hurry?"

"I find it rather pleasant waiting." He flashed her a smile. "You are comfortable here, aren't you?" He glanced around the living-room.

Mrs. Lowell sighed. "We try to like it, but it is rather trying, this apartment life, after so many years in a big home. Oh well, things of course have been different since Mr. Lowell died. It almost breaks my heart to see Mary work, but she seems to like it. I'm afraid I'll never get used to it." There was a suspicion of tears in her voice.

Church smiled. "The modern girl, Mrs. Lowell. And I'm not sure that I agree with all her theories. I rather cling to the old-fashioned idea of woman's place being in the home and that sort of thing. This striving for equality and economic independence is all very well, but after all there are certain inevitable contacts the girl in business has to make that are not—well, I don't like to see it.

"And now, Mrs. Lowell, I'm taking the liberty of saying something that has been on my mind for some time. It is about Mary."

"Yes?" Mrs. Lowell was all eager attention.

"I love her. I want to marry her. Now just a minute, please. May I finish?" He waved away her interruption. "I can offer her and you, too—a wonderful home. While I am not exactly a millionaire, still most people would call me wealthy."

"Yes, of course," breathed Mrs. Lowell, "very wealthy."

"And," he went on smoothly, "I think I ah, hold a certain position in the community that cannot be bought with money."

He was on his feet, gesturing gracefully with his arms to add emphasis to his words. "Mrs. Lowell, all Mary has to do is say the word."

"Have you said anything to Mary?" Mrs. Lowell's voice fluttered.

"That is another thing I am old fashioned about, Mrs. Lowell." He bowed slightly. "I am speaking first to you. I have dropped an occasional hint, which is only natural for a man in love. I had gathered that she was somewhat interested in a young man named—let me see—Rand."

"Oh, that?" She smiled deprecatingly. "I did my best to discourage that. They met in a rather romantic way and he was here a few times, but that was all. She never mentions his name any more."

"These wise mothers!" he exclaimed softly. "It must have been—let us call it intuition—that led you to discourage that. I haven't had the opportunity to observe the young man very much, but the first time I saw him he was standing on the street with a notorious woman in his arms. Right in front of the Mayfair Hotel, with dozens of people passing."

"Brazen!" Mrs. Lowell exclaimed.

"Oh, both of them must have been drunk. There's no other way of accounting for it. Mary saw it, too. Perhaps that's why she hasn't mentioned his name since."

"Mary hasn't been quite herself lately," she admitted. "I wonder if she's been thinking about that—that Rand."

"A little talk with her," he suggested, "might—"

"She shall have it."

"Without, of course, bringing me into it. Things might be misunderstood, you know, and I have a certain delicacy about suggesting—"

"I understand perfectly, Mr. Church. I think it quite noble of you to let me know."

"It was quite distasteful, I assure you, Mrs. Lowell."

"I know, I know. But there's Mary calling. Some last minute help with her dress, I suppose. Excuse me."

Alone, Church smiled a self-satisfied smile. With his left hand he carefully flicked his cigar ashes into a nearby receiver. With his right he smoothed down his flawlessly combed hair. He walked over to the wall mirror and adjusted his black bow tie. Then he sat down and waited.

Mrs. Lowell, in Mary's room, said as she helped her daughter into her coat, "Mr. Church asked my permission to-night to propose to you."

"Mother!"

Mrs. Lowell went on, unheeding. "That such a rare and admirable trait to find in a man to-day. Not very many of them think of us mothers."

"Mother, don't talk like that. Did he say—"

"He has wealth," Mrs. Lowell interrupted, "refinement, position—everything a girl could ask. Not many girls get such a chance. If he says anything to you to-night I want you to think of what it means to me—to both of us. No more of this—this awful poverty. I don't think I could stand to go on with it."

She dabbed at her eyes with her handkerchief and left the room, and Mary, strangely white faced, stood staring out of the window for some time before she followed. . . .

On the drive downtown and during the concert Chuch was attentiveness itself to Mary. He made no allusion to his conversation with her mother, but on the way home he quite casuall brought up the topic.

"That," he said, with a graceful wave of the hand toward the imposing looking home they were passing, "is the kind of house you should be living in. You were born to things like that. There's no reason why you shouldn't have them."

Mary, biting her lips, said, "I am happy where I am, Mr. Church."

"You say that because it isn't in you to be selfish. You think too much of others, Mary, and not enough of yourself. Think how wonderful it would be for your mother and you—a home like that.

"Mary," he continued impetuously, "I can give you all that and more. I love you and want you to marry me."

"Don't. Don't," she protested, her face buried in her hands.

"I don't want your answer now, Mary. I want you to think it over. Will you?"

"Yes, I will. Please take me in."

In her room once more, she flung herself face down on the bed, still fully dressed. "Selfish!" she cried in a strangled voice. "Is that what I am—selfish?"

. . . Through the open window came the purr of an automobile engine starting. It faded away in the distance.

In front of Jimmy Rand was a letter, the ink on it hardly dry. It began, "Dear Mary."

Jimmy slowly read it through—several pages, that had taken him hours to write. He read it again. Then he pushed his chair back from the table and slowly crumpled the letter in his hand.

Rising, he tore it into tiny fragments and threw them in the waste basket.

CHAPTER XX

Jimmy Rand awoke the next morning with a violent headache, the after effects of the previous night's encounter with his two mysterious shadowers. His ear was swollen; he ached in every muscle.

He lay in bed longer than usual turning over in his mind the jumble of events that had crowded in on him during the last few days, trying to put some semblance of order to his chaotic thoughts.

The landlady knocked on his door and, when he opened it, handed him a letter.

"It just came, Mr. Rand," It was a special delivery. She hesitated a moment and then she said, "I—I sort of thought you might not be feeling well this morning, Mr. Rand, after last night, and I fixed some breakfast for you. I'll bring it right up."

"That's mighty kind of you, Mrs. King, I'm sure. You shouldn't have gone to all that trouble for me." He was a little uncomfortable in the face of this unexpected kindness.

He sat on the bed to open his letter. It was postmarked Grafton and was from Detective Mooney. Mrs. King found him with a puzzled frown on his face when she returned with the breakfast tray.

"I hope it's not bad news, Mr. Rand." She could not keep the curiosity out of her voice. This new roomer of hers, with his mysterious phone calls and strange encounters, was a puzzling proposition.

He smiled. "No, Mrs. King. It's from an old friend in Grafton. He's just telling me the news."

"Oh!" She thrust her hands in her apron pocket and left the room.

Between bits of buttered toast, Jimmy read the letter again.

Young Father—"That luminous paint is a splendid invention."

Bachelor Friend—"What do you use it for?"

"We paint the baby's face so that we can give him his bottle in the night without lighting the gas."

SCHOOL BY-LAW IN OAK BAY DEFEATED

Vote Was in Favor But Plan Failed to Secure Necessary Three-fifths Majority

In one of the smallest votes cast in the municipality of Oak Bay for some years the School Loan By-law was defeated at the polls on Saturday. The money by-law was minus forty-five votes to give it the necessary three-fifths majority for its passing.

Although the by-law was defeated polling favored the plan by the small majority of four votes. A total of 457 votes visited the polls and out of this number 228 voted in favor and 224 marked their ballots against the by-law. Five ballots were rejected.

The by-law was submitted at the request of the School Board and asked the permission of the ratepayers for the right to spend the amount of close to $7,000 for the purpose of constructing an assembly room at the Monterey Avenue School. The money was to be raised by debenture issue.

The total cost of building the addition to the school was to be $10,000, one-third of which would have been paid by the Provincial Government.

AGED ACCUSED MAN PUT END TO HIS LIFE

G. Peoples, Charged With Murdering Wife in Nova Scotia, Drowned Himself

Was Being Taken to Jail After Beginning of Preliminary Hearing

Mulgrave, N.S., April 19.—George Peoples, seventy-three, who was brought here from Regina a week ago to face a charge of having murdered his wife last January, jumped overboard from the steamer that was taking him back to the Guysboro jail from his unfinished preliminary hearing at the court house here Saturday and was drawned.

Peoples's act brought to a tragic ending what promised to be a long-drawn-out investigation of the charge of murder brought against the aged farmer by the Department of the Attorney-General of Nova Scotia in connetcion with the violent death January 5 last of the wife of the accused, who was found in the cellar of their home at Pirates' Cove, near here, dead from terrible head injuries.

The preliminary hearing had been opened at Mulgrave Saturday and after hearing the evidence of eighteen witnesses, the court had adjourned until May 14, at the request of the prosecution. The prisoner was being taken back to the jail in the town of Guysboro in the steamer Westport III, which makes tri-weekly trips between the two ports. Peoples had been treated leniently by the officers since his arrest in Regina a month ago, and no handcuffs were being used. He was in charge of Constable Shea in the deck cabin of the steamer. About five miles out he developed symptoms of an epileptic fit, to which affliction he was subject. Shea, being alone with his prisoner at the moment, hurried away for help. Left alone, Peoples immediately ran to the low railing and leaped into the water.

The ship was at once brought about and in a comparatively short time the body was brought aboard. It was thought possible death might have resulted from shock.

A coroner's jury at Mulgrave, to which port the steamer at once returned following the tragedy, brought in a verdict of "premeditated death."

CAPT. VANCOUVER OFF POINT GREY, WHILE ENTERING VANCOUVER HARBOR

BY some strange chance, Vancouver, in his survey of this part of the Gulf of Georgia, failed to locate the Fraser River. He noted the sand banks extending into the sea, and records that the small boat, in which he carried on his survey, was disturbed by the strong current. He came to the conclusion that the northern branch of the sound might be the outlet of a river, and between what are now Points Grey and Atkinson observed the narrow entrance of a long canal. He named Point Grey after his friend, Capt. George Grey, of the Navy.

As Captain Vancouver opened the door to a prosperous Province so Shelly's opened the way to saving and leisure in her homes. A phone call to your store or Shelly's will save you baking.
